

Before Storing Your Winter Clothes

Have Them Thoroughly Cleaned

They are then not only in a clean sanitary condition—ready to wear next winter—but will withstand the onslaughts of moths during the summer months. Storing them in a soiled condition may mean their complete ruin.

Music Leaders Conduct Sessions in Evanston

The Illinois Federation of Music clubs held its seventh state meeting at the North Shore hotel in Evanston May 24, 25 and 26. Mrs. Edmund Joseph Tyler, of Chicago, who is the state president, presided. Several hundred delegates from all over the state, as well as from other states, were present. Mrs. August C. Babize, 484 Sheridan road, Glencoe, attended in her capacity as president of the Music Study club of Chicago.

The business meetings took place in the mornings, after which programs were offered.

Women archers at Northwestern U. participated Thursday in the intercollegiate telegraphic meet together with teams from Bryn Mawr, Mt. Holyoke, University of Wisconsin and Cornell university. The girls have prepared for the match under the direction of Miss Marie Hjermstad. May Day, May 22, the contest to select the school champion will be held. Miss Virginia Fitzmaurice, present title holder will defend her championship.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart of Sheridan road and their daughter, Miss Joan, left Friday, May 28, to motor east to attend the graduation of their daughter, Ellen, from Farmington. They expect to return in three weeks. Miss Ellen will be one of the fall's debutantes.
