Receive Vaudeville of Kenilworth Club With Much Applause

"The Village Vanities of 1926," written, directed, and produced by local talent, was cleverly put on this year by the Kenilworth club. The assembly hall was crowded to its utmost by Kenilworth residents and their friends eager to see the entertainment which was a combination of music, mirth and mystery. The long continued applause of the audience was an expression of the enthusiasm with which the production was received.

Louis D. Jones of 325 Richmond road was chairman of the producing staff. Harry S. Weese, 141 Kenilworth avenue, was vice-chairman and director of music. Miss Isabelle Lovedale, 42 Kenilworth avenue was dramatic director, and Mrs. Matthew Beaton, Jr., 505 Abbottsford road, directed the dancing. James Griffen of Northwestern university was technical director.

CHANGE ABODES

A few Kenilworth residents have found this week a suitable time for changing their domiciles, and the following families have moved their households from one home to another; the Bentley McClouds into the home formerly owned by the Shattucks on Kenilworth avenue; the Erwins into their new home on Cumberland avenue; the Noble Gilletts into the home formerly owned by the Erwins.

GARDEN CLUB HOSTESS

The Kenilworth Garden club is hostess today to the members of the Glencoe Garden club. Tea will be served at the home of Mrs. S. D. Flood, 133 Kenilworth avenue, and numerous Kenilworth gardens will be visited.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littel, 322 Woodstock avenue, returned to Kenilworth Sunday from their trip to Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Y. Ball of Indian Hill returned a few days later as they stopped at Wells college to visit their daughter, Paisley.

Mrs. Leon M. Allen, 258 Melrose avenue, returned to Kenilworth Friday, May 21, after visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dwinell Slater of Lexington, Mass. Mrs. Slater accompanied Mr. Allen to New York where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Francis Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Nichols of 519 Warwick road have returned to Kenilworth from their trip around the world. Mrs. Nichols has been ill ever since their arrival and is regaining her health slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Workman, 222 Leicester road, and Mr. and Mrs. Merritt H. Dement of 337 Abbottsford road, returned to Kenilworth last week from an enjoyable trip to the Kentucky Derby.

Singleton Wins Honor

Thomas Singleton of Maywood was awarded the sixteen inch silver trophy for the Northwestern university player showing the greatest improvement during spring football practice. The award was made between halves during the intra-team game between two picked squads at Roycemore field. Fred H. Clutton made the presentation speech.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore are staying at the Kenilworth Inn while their new home is being built in Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. M. Cole, 315 Essex road, spent a few days of last week motoring through Illinois.
