Carries Charity Message to Thousands of People

Dr. M. H. Bickham, 429 Ninth street, Wilmette, has just returned from the National conference of Social Work at Cleveland, Ohio. In the educational publicity department Dr. Bickham read a paper on "Values of Public Address in Social Work." This was national recognition of Dr. Bickham's work in Chicago. In the last year he has addressed hundreds of groups of all kinds such as churches, schools, clubs, Chambers of Commerce, business men's associations, women's clubs, etc. He has presented the family social work of the United Charities to about 50,000 people in the metropolitan region by means of public addresses.

Francis Neir, Allison Clark and Douglas Davisson are returning to their homes next week from Brown university, Providence, R. I.

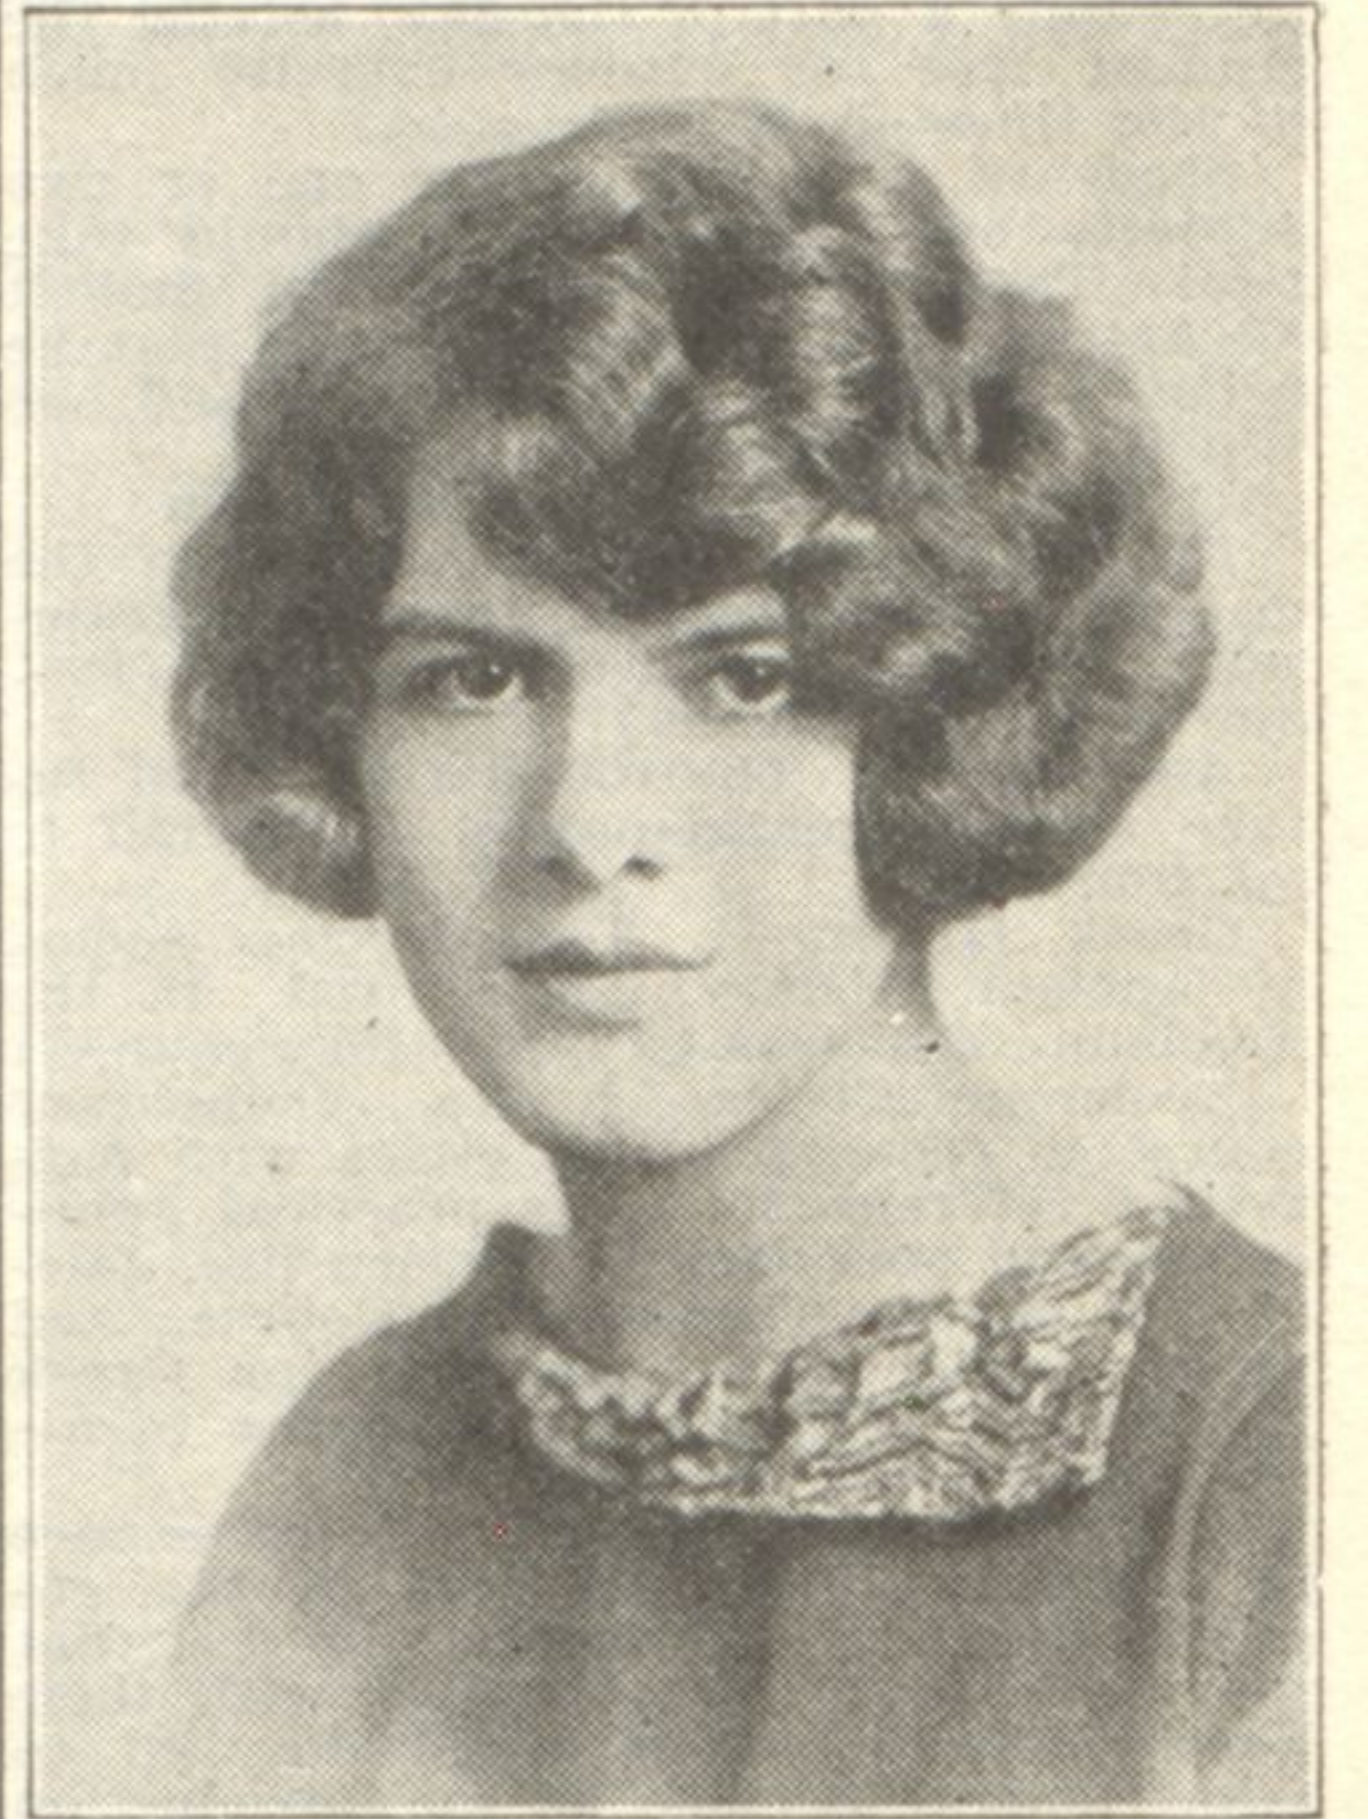

New Trier Announces Senior Hop for June 12

The New Trier high school senior "hop" will be held Saturday evening, June 12, it was announced last week. Instead of making it an informal affair, which has been done upon some occasions in recent years, the dance will be strictly formal. It is expected to be the largest party any senior class at New Trier ever had. The dance will begin at 8:30 o'clock and will continue until midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baackes, Jr., of Chicago are renting the Percy Bradstreets' home for the summer. Mrs. Baackes is a sister of Mrs. G. H. Muselman of Foxdale avenue.

Miss Jessie D. West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. West, who is a junior at the University of Illinois, will return to her home this week-end.

Fete Bride

Mary Helen Pancoast

Saturday, June 19, has been chosen by Miss Mary Helen Pancoast as the time of her marriage to Judson M. Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Judson F. Stone of 1234 Ashland avenue, Wilmette.

The Rev. Stephen A. Lloyd will read the service at 8:30 in the First Congregational church, and the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah A. Pancoast, will hold the reception at their home, 1301 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette, immediately after the ceremony.

Miss Pancoast has chosen as her attendants, Mrs. Russell Chandler of Evanston, as her matron of honor; Miss Naomi Sloan, of Evanston, as her maid of honor, and as her bridesmaids, Miss Marcelite Melind, Miss Minnie Mae Schmidt, and Miss Madeline Hammond of Wilmette, Miss Beatrice Pank and Miss Helen Dyche of Evanston, and Miss Alice Howard of Chicago. All of her attendants with the exception of Mrs. Chandler and Miss Hammond, are members of her sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Mr. Stone's twin brothers, Harry and Frederick, will be his best men, and the ushers will be the bride-elect's brother, Nathan Pancoast, and Frank Stevens of Aurora, Harry Kerr of Chicago, and Charles Barker, Russell Chandler, and Whitney Bowers, of Evanston.

The following list includes the affairs given for Miss Pancoast and Mr. Stone prior to their marriage.

May 11, Mrs. Henry E. Jonas, Mrs. Lillian Warren and Miss Hope Jonas, hostesses at a miscellaneous shower; May 21—Miss Marcelite Melind, hostess at a kitchen shower; Saturday, June 5—Miss Naomi Sloan, a bridge and hosiery shower in the afternoon, and Mrs. Russell Chandler a bridge party in the evening; Wednesday, June 9—Miss Beatrice Pank and Miss Helen Dyche, a bridge-tea; Thursday, June 10—Miss Alice Howard a bridge-luncheon at the Belmont hotel; Saturday, June 12—Miss Minnie Mae Schmidt, a bridge-luncheon; Sunday, June 13—Charles Barker and Whitney Bowers, a buffet supper; Tuesday, June 15—Miss Madeline Hammond, a bridge-luncheon and linen shower at Westmoreland Country club; Wednesday, June 16—Miss Pancoast will give a bridge-luncheon in honor of Miss Schmidt, and in the evening Miss Naomi Sloan is giving a dinner; Thursday, June 17—Mr. and Mrs. Pancoast will give the bridal dinner at the Evanston Golf club; Friday, June 18—Mr. and Mrs. Judson F. Stone will entertain at dinner at the Edgewater Beach hotel.
