School of Speech of Northwestern Begins Commencement Days

The month of May and early June give place to a full program of student recitals and Commencement week features at the Northwestern University School of Speech.

Lecture-Recitals have been offered in early May by Herbert Maw, Rozetta Segal and Elmer C. Kiessling. The school's May Festival was staged Thursday on an outdoor stage. Friday afternoon a post graduate recital was given by Miss Ruth Girard, and the senior recital took place Tuesday afternoon. Today there will be another post graduate recital by Miss Harriet Allyn. Tomorrow will bring the all-school rally and final "get-together" of the School of Speech in Annie May Swift hall auditorium at 4.

Thursday, June 10, commencement exercises will take place. The address will be given by Dean Ralph B. Dennis, expected to return by that time from a year in Switzerland, and exercises will be held at 8 at Annie May Swift hall.

The university campus program and illumination will be staged at 8 Friday, June 11. Saturday, June 12, will bring the University alumni luncheon at 12 at Northwestern university gymnasium; the alumni meeting of the School of Speech will take place at 5 with the alumni supper at 6 and an alumni reading at 7:30 preceding the annual president's reception at the gymnasium between 9 and 11.

Sunday, June 13, is the date of the annual baccalaureate service at 3 at the gymnasium followed by the candlelight service of song at 8. Monday, June 14, the 68th annual commencement exercises of the University will take place at 10:30 at the gymnasium.

Opens New Piano Store in Evanston This Month

Carleton Kaumeyer, 601 Linden avenue, Wilmette, will open a new piano store to be called the Chickering Studios, at 527 Davis street, Evanston, about the middle of June, it was announced this week. The store will handle Chickering, Marshall and Wendell, and Brewster pianos, as well as the Ampico in Chickering and Marshall and Wendel makes. Mr. Kaumeyer announces that he will be equipped to give complete service on any of his pianos and he will also carry music rolls for the Ampico. A large stock of grand pianos will be kept on hand and any type of piano in the makes mentioned above may be purchased through the store. Portable phonographs will also be sold, it was said.

WINS CONTEST HONOR

In a recent violin contest at the American Conservatory of Music, Miss Katherine Hamilton of 412 Walnut street, Winnetka, won first place. The prize is the honor of appearing as soloist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra at the commencement concert of the conservatory. The concert will take place at the Auditorium Friday evening, June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Schoenbrun, 864 Burr avenue, are spending three weeks in the East. Mr. Schoenbrun went to Atlantic City on a business trip and Mrs. Schoenbrun accompanied him.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Zipf of 596 Arbor Vitae road returned this week from their southern trip.

When You Close Your Home

for an evening or for a few days—do you always feel quite sure about the things you leave there?

$3.00 a year for the rental of a lock box in the new vaults of the State Bank and Trust Company would bring you peace of mind worth many times the cost.

These vaults are as safe as steel, concrete and human ingenuity can make them. Come in and let us show you this interesting equipment.
