North Shore Girl High Point Winner in Meet

Miss Mariesther Krafthefer, 901 Oakwood avenue, Wilmette, of the sophomore class at St. Mary-of-the-Woods college won the highest number of points at the field and track meet on the college campus, making 20 out of 33 points scored by her class. She won first place in the high jump, the basketball distance throw, the seventy-five-yard dash and the 300-yard relay; also in the tennis match which followed. The sophomores won first place in four out of the six events scheduled.

GIVES HOUSE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. John Nash Ott of Indian Hill entertained a few of their friends over Decoration day at a house warming at their new summer home, which they have recently built at Lake Tomohawk in northern Wisconsin. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bastian, Mr. and Mrs. Towner Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Marsh and Mr. and Mrs. Harve Badgerow.

TEA AT RIDING STABLES

One of the attractive society events of the season was the small tea Sunday afternoon on the occasion of the formal opening of the Woman's and Children's room in the stables of the Indian Hill Riding club. Tea was served at 4 o'clock on the lawn under the awning shading the entrance of the charming room which was designed and decorated by Arthur Duncan of Winnetka.

GIVES DINNER-DANCE

Miss Virginia Klein of Winnetka has sent out invitations for a dinner-dance Tuesday evening given in honor of Miss Dorothy Roehm of Winnetka and Jackson K. Dering, Jr., who are to be married next Saturday.

Grant Permit for Poster Announcement of Pageant

New Trier high school was given permission to erect signs advertising its pageant in the village at the Council meeting last Tuesday evening. The signs are artistic and are mounted on attractive standards. They will be placed in the parkways in various parts of the village. Other communities in New Trier township have taken similar steps to allow the school to advertise its pageant.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Davis of 1080 Private road, Hubbard Woods, have as their guests this week, their son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis, of Granite City, Ill.
