

In Recital

Miss Ethel Lyon, associate director of the children's department of the American Conservatory of Music, will present her north shore class on Saturday, June 5, in the following program:

1. Daffy-down-dilly Cramm
Clatter, Clatter Gaynor
Twinkle, Twinkle Cramm
Louise Keckley
2. Sleep Song Gaynor
Garden of Flowers Smeltzer
Waltz Gurflitt
Harriet Pearl
3. Duet—Peasant's Dance Gaynor
Louise Keckley and Roger Ballard
Peter, Peter Mokrejs
The Brooklet Cramm
Roger Ballard
4. Scherzo Gurflitt
What the Clock Says Lyon
Ruth Smejkal

5. Victory March Weidig
Richard Preston
6. Polish Dance Krogman
English Country Dance Krogman
Marion Steinberg
7. March—The Three Musketeers Robyn
Valse Grazioso Bentley
Natalie Rudeis
8. Autumn Rondelay Dutton
Helen Parsons
9. Columbine Waltz Scott
Minuet Mozart
Amy Massover
10. At Bed-time Lyon
Under the Pines Dutton
Marion Thomas
11. The Grasshopper and the Dwarf Lyon
The Brownies' Party Lyon
The Teddy-bear Weidig
One Who Comes from Foreign Climes Weidig
Consolation Mendelssohn
George Friestedt
12. Elfintanz Grieg
Rondeletto Lynes
Amy Starek
13. Minuet in G Major Beethoven
Merry Games Weidig
Charlene Shafer
14. Bird Call Robyn

- Robin Hood and His Merry Men Osgood
- The Happy Lovers (from Cinderella suite) Lyon
- Sonata in C Major Mozart
Ruth Munday
15. Feu Follet in F. Minor Rogers
Angeline Drake
16. Feu Follet in D. Minor Rogers
Album Leaf in A Minor Koelling
Gretchen Englander
17. Sketch Lyon
March Mignone Poldini
Audrey Juthmann
18. Swing Song Corriel
Boat Song Corriel
Butterflies Grieg
Helen Harrison
19. Fugue in E Minor Bach
Polonais Chopin
The Nightingale Liszt
Rondo Capriccioso Mendelssohn
Harriet Parker

Mrs. Irving Odell of 855 Hill road, her three children, and her mother, Mrs. Jamieson, leave June 15 for East Brewster and Cape Cod, Mass., for the entire summer.

Vacation Season Starts for Rev. T. A. Goodwin

Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin leaves Monday of next week for Wisconsin where he will spend his vacation. Mrs. Goodwin and her mother, Mrs. John Reynolds, left two weeks ago for their summer home at Waupaca. Mr. Goodwin and his father, E. M. Goodwin of Chicago, will motor to Minneapolis, and then back to Waupaca. Mr. Goodwin's vacation will be interrupted by a week of service as dean of the young people's conference at Tower Hill, Mich., June 16 to 22. After that he will return to Waupaca for the balance of his month's vacation. Beginning July 18 he will preach morning and evening at the Congregational Church in Winnetka, during the absence of the Rev. James Austin Richards.

When an Ice Cream dealer shops for a bargain price on a delicacy that goes into your stomach, is he a good dealer to go to?

Hydrox Agents pay the most to give you the best. Certainly they are deserving of your patronage.

There Is a Hydrox Agency Near Your Home

DIVISION OF NATIONAL DAIRY PRODUCTS CORPORATION