PRESIDES AT LUNCHEON

The thirty-fifth annual commencement of the Columbia College of Expression and the Columbia Normal School of Physical Education takes place Friday, June 11, at 11, at 120 East Pearson street, Chicago. Following the commencement the alumnae luncheon will be held at 1, at the Drake hotel, at which Mrs. Edwin Hedrick of Kenilworth will preside.

At the Helm

Frederick Edson Clerk, present principal at New Trier High school, ranks among the foremost educators in the country in the field pertaining to secondary instruction, as distinguished from elementary and college work. The coming of Mr. Clerk in 1923 marked a distinct advance in methods at New Trier by the introduction of what, in some respects, were regarded as daringly modern ideas. He has developed the advisor system to a fine degree and has been particularly interested in fostering a better basis of understanding between teacher and parent. He has been responsible, also, for the establishment of special visiting or inspection days on which the parents are brought to the school and requested to follow through the classwork of their children. Mr. Clerk was formerly associated with the Handley Foundation school—termed a model school for a small city—at Winchester, Va., which was supported by the Rockefeller Foundation.

EVANSTON

Dedication

To parent Vision and self-sacrifice,
Who, mid the hardships of that yesteryear
When sylvan wonders still untrammeled stood,
Brought forth the purpose of our great
New Trier,
Most reverently we dedicate this play,
In hope that Education's light alway Through shrouding mists of Ignorance may gleam,
And, ever brightening, onward send its beam.
No longer fruitful talents waste for want Of leader and instructor such as he;
His varied growth we gladly celebrate,
His growth and ours of quarter century.
Then long live good King Thought,
his royal court,
And every helpful study, club, or sport;
Where Cheating fails and honor gains its meed,
Where good example leads to greater deed!

—William Lanferman.
