New Trier High School Physical Education and Health Work Wins National Award

One of the reasons why New Trier High school stood so high that it tied another school for the National Health award this year is its excellent physical training department, under the direction of W. L. Childs and Miss Marion F. Goodman. This department carries on a program of physical education and health work which reaches every student in the school.

The aims of the work of the department may briefly be outlined as follows:

The constant physical fitness of every student, the development of a constitution sufficiently vigorous to enable the student to successfully carry out his life work, and the development ability, will power and resourcefulness to successfully meet many of the emergencies of life.

The development of desires and time interest and practice in wholesome sports and exercises, thus promoting health, pleasure and social life and providing a worth while way of using leisure time.

The development of character through training in athletic sports.

matters of hygiene and health.

For students who have special twenty-fifth anniversary.

physical limitations a program of corrective gymnastics is provided under the personal supervision of a competent instructor.

At the beginning of each year a physical examination is given to each student by a physician and the findings reported confidentially to the parent of each student.

Music Club Draws Many Students of High School

The Music club of New Trier High school, which has been holding social meetings regularly at the homes of various members during the year, has just ended its sixth successful year. The club is composed of musicians who have tried out and been voted into the organization by a committee of judges. These talented ones are active members, while the rest of the club are associate members. The assoof sufficient strength, courage, physical ciate members are those who love music but are not particularly talented. They have the privilege of attending every third meeting. The purpose of the club is to bring about a closer achabits that will tend to keep a life- quaintance among the music lovers of New Trier.
