

Prizes and Scholarships Are Offered at New Trier

Several prizes and scholarships are available to pupils of New Trier high school. One is the Williams prize, donated each year by Henry P. Williams, of Glencoe. Its purpose is to encourage literary effort in poetry, story, drama and essay. Another is the Barnett prize, donated by Otto R. Barnett, also of Glencoe, and awarded twice a year. One prize is for essays on civics and economics and the other for essays on birds. The Manierre Barlow Ware scholarship, providing financial aid to a New Trier student either at the school or in college, was established by Charles Ware of Kenilworth, in memory of his son Manierre Barlow Ware, a former pupil at New Trier high school who was killed in the war. There is also a scholarship providing similar aid for girls maintained by the Girls' club of

First School Board Met During Spring of 1899

Gen. C. H. Howard of Glencoe, Merritt Starr of Winnetka, Rev. William Netstraeter of Gross Point, Dr. Byron C. Stolp and James M. Johnson of Wilmette constituted the first New Trier Township Board of Education. They met in inaugural session May 19, 1899. On July 29 an election was held to determine the site of the high school, and on August 5, the tax payers authorized by vote the issuance of bonds to the extent of $60,000 wherewith to purchase the six-acre grounds and erect the high school building. Norman S. Patten was the architect and the contract for the high school structure was let in April of 1900 to C. E. Carson of Chicago.

WHAT PRICE LOVE? A Story for Every Woman

The story every woman has waited for for years has been written.

"What Price Love?"

A comparatively unknown writer named Dorothy Day has written it.

"What Price Love" touches the never absent question of every modern girl and reaches back into the experience of every older woman.

Nothing like it has ever been done before.

It is greater than "Chickie" because, while it has all of the love scenes of "Chickie" and all the dramatic climaxes in the life of a great passion, it has a greater background than "Chickie," which lifts it to the very song of songs in the emotional life of womanhood.

Chicago Herald and Examiner has secured the exclusive right to publish this story before it appears in book form.

Every woman in this city will read it almost breathlessly from day to day. Every girl will live it as each chapter unfolds the intensity of it from day to day.

Not one of you will want to miss it. So be sure to order your Herald and Examiner now from your nearest newsdealer or from the Herald and Examiner's Circulation Department.
