Kenilworth Field Day Winners Get Cups and Medals

Engraved silver loving cups were presented to boys and girls in each of three classes who were the high point winners in the annual field day of the Joseph Sears school, Kenilworth, last week. Those who received the cups were as follows: Arthur McIntosh and Jane Scott in class A (over 100 pounds); Bob Hutchens and Marjorie Thorsen in class B (85-100 pounds); Woodrow Wilson and Ruth Johnston, Juniors (under 85 pounds).

Sterling silver medals for second high point winners in the various classes were presented to Carl Schroeder, Charlotte Hamilton, Hilda Swanson, George Scott, Marjorie Smythe, Claude Phillips, and Jane McIntosh.

Bronze medals for third high point winners will go to Tom Hicks, Eunice Wilson, Hinman Bisbee, Agnes Fraser, Alexander Newton, Teallie Wilson. The cups and medals are donated by Kenilworth citizens and were presented by Robert Townley, director of physical education in the Kenilworth school. This was the seventh annual field day held by the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Whipple Jacobs, formerly of Evanston, are now occupying the residence they purchased from the Ernst von Ammons at 420 Elder lane.

Mrs. M. G. Goss of Orchard lane was hostess to sixteen friends Wednesday, June 9, at the Sunset Ridge Golf club, at the weekly bridge given by the club.

Mr. and Mrs. George Massey and their family, 705 Sheridan road, left Friday, June 11, for the East, to spend the summer at Marion, Mass.
