

Colonial Note Predominant at Stixrud Wedding

The marriage of Miss Audrey Stixrud, 607 Willow road, to George Shipman of 432 Warwick road, Kenilworth, took place Saturday, June 12, at 8:30, at Christ church, Winnetka.

In a colorful setting of pink and white peonies, ferns and palms, the bridal party passed between candelabras supporting draped ribbons. In every detail of dress and decoration, Miss Stixrud's wedding carried out the colonial period.

The bride was dressed in white taffeta, with hoop skirt reaching to her ankles, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas, lilies-of-the-valley, roses and orchids. Her veil of white tulle and lace bonnet trimmed in orange blossoms, accentuated the colonial effect.

Miss Elizabeth Shipman, maid of honor wore green taffeta, while Mrs. Giles Weiss, matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Gretchen Stratton and Miss Alice Shipman, wore orchid taffeta, all with hoop skirts and deep borders of tulle reaching to the ankles.

A reception followed the wedding at the brides home, and the young couple left immediately afterwards for a five weeks' honeymoon in the West. They will visit Lake Louise, Vancouver, Seattle, and spend some time with the bride's married sister, Mrs. E. E. McLeod, of Hollywood, Cal., who was formerly Miss Beulah Stixrud.

Helen Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Davis, 1080 Private road, has gone to Boston for a special music course under Mr. Surette of Concord, Mass. Miss Davis will also attend the Alpha Phi convention while she is there, returning later in the summer to Lake Hamlin, Ludington, Mich., to be with her family at their cottage.

Woman Battles Police
When Arrested on Road

Mrs. Thomas J. Mangen, County Line road, Glencoe, was arrested, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated last Monday afternoon, after she had struck three cars, one of them a village truck, on Sheridan road. When Motorcycle Policeman Eugene Schubert and Francis Raeburn attempted to arrest her she struck Schubert in the face, but the policemen overpowered her and took her to the police station. Mrs. Mangen was accompanied by her husband, who was also said to have been intoxicated, and had her week-old baby with her. She became so violent at the police station that it was necessary to give her medical attention. She was released in the custody of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Welsh, of Chicago, to await trial at a later date. Two empty bottles, which had contained wine, were found in the car by the policemen. Mrs. Mangen was clad only in a nightgown. The baby was cared for by the village health department.

Miss Jessie West, 937 Gordon terrace, Hubbard Woods, has returned home from the University of Illinois where she completed her Sophomore year. Miss West will remain in Winnetka part of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Porter, 470 Provident avenue, are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter, Nancy, at the Evanston hospital, June 6. Mrs. Porter was Bertha Deily before her marriage.
