WHEREVER you see a Hydrox Agent you can be pretty sure that agent has intelligence and integrity.

He's got to have intelligence to know that because Hydrox is better for you, it is better for him. And he's got to have integrity to sell Hydrox when he could buy so many other Ice Creams for so much less.

That kind of dealer is a pretty good man to turn to when you are also buying other things upon which your health depends.

And not a bad time to remember him is when you have a prescription to fill.
