2,000 AT MASONIC DEDICATION SUNDAY

Former Governor of Minnesota Is Among Speakers at North Shore cemetery Event

Last Sunday was a red letter day in the history of the North Shore Cemetery. The management has not heretofore arranged for public meetings in observance of Memorial day, dedication exercises or corner-stone laying. Last Sunday's event was to dedicate the new Masonic memorial which now stands in the center of the Masonic section and is a land-mark for many miles around. The monument is of Mountain Airy white granite designed by a 32nd degree Mason. It follows closely the Classic School of Doric architecture which reached its highest state of perfection during the age of Pericles of Ancient Greece, 2400 to 2500 years ago. This memorial to Masons who have gone before consists of a massive base, the platform of which is reached by three steps in solid granite. Although this base is 20 feet long and 6 feet wide it is composed of only two blocks of granite, the one next to the concrete foundation weighing 24,000 pounds. Resting on the base are three great fluted columns 3 feet in diameter and rising high in the air. Surmounting the columns is the architrave which contains the emblems of Masonry on the easterly front and, on the westerly front, the deeply reverential inscription: "To The Glory of Almighty God And In Memory Of Those Who Have Passed The Unseen Portals." The capstone alone weighs 29,000 pounds. This is said by well-traveled people to be the most beautiful and imposing Masonic monument to be found in any cemetery in this country.

Indeed, it is probably safe to say that there is nothing equal to it in any American cemetery, whether representing fraternity principles or not.

Presiding the regular program the Elk's band of Waukegan gave a concert of sacred music from the spacious platform at the base of the monument for nearly an hour, while President John Western and his wife entertained those who were to take part in the regular program and some other friends. Promptly at 2:30 o'clock, as announced, the exercises began. The following program was carried thru:

Singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers" by the audience led by A. C. McNeill and the Elk's band.

Scripture reading and prayer by Rev. Howard Gantser, 13th chapter of First Corinthians.

Singing by audience with the accompaniment of the band, "O, for a Thousand Tongues to Sing My Great Redeemer's Praise."

Remarks by President John Western. Mr. Western expressed his appreciation for the presence of the Sir Knights of the Waukegan Commandery Knights Templar in full uniform, also for the aid of all persons who had so cordially assisted him in making the occasion a success.

Amongst other things he said: "The spirit of North Shore cemetery represents life in all its beauteous forms. The spirit of North Shore cemetery represents the co-operation of the highest art with nature." He cited the fact that they had met to dedicate a memorial shapen in the art of 25 centuries ago to express the culture and prosperity of the present day.

Selection by band.

Address by Hon. A. O. Eberhart, former governor of Minnesota, but now a Chicago business man.

Hymn by the audience and band—"Come Thou Almighty King."

Short addresses by Frank Fowler, secretary and manager of the Chamber of Commerce of Waukegan and North Chicago; and Charles O. Armes, Commander of the Waukegan Commandery Knights Templar.

Hymn by audience and band—"Crown Him With Many Crowns."

Short addresses by Fred Shatswell, master of Waukegan Lodge No. 78;
