

Yale Gives Degrees to Two North Shore Students This Week

Two north shore men are counted among the graduates of Yale university this week. They are Robert O. Clark of 596 Oak street, Winnetka, and Edward Gay Mason of 490 Jefferson avenue, Glencoe.

Mr. Clark is the son of Edwin Hill Clark, Yale '00, and prepared for Yale at the Eliot school, the North Shore Country Day school and at Phillips-Andover. At Sheff he took the course in general science. He was a scholar of the second rank in freshman year and received general one-year honors for excellence in all studies in sophomore year and two-year honors in junior year. He headed the News in freshman year, was assistant manager of the varsity track team in junior year and manager in senior year, receiving his "Y." He was a member of the Undergraduate Athletic association, belongs to the Andover club, the Torch honor-society, and The Colony and Berzelius.

Mr. Mason is the son of Edward H. Mason, Yale '92. He prepared for college at the New Trier High school and at Phillips-Andover. In freshman year he was on the fall crew squad, and in 1924 he competed for manager-ship of the hockey team. He also went out for swimming, tennis and squash, and in freshman year he headed the News. He served on the budget committee in sophomore year, is a member of the Andover club, the University club, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and the Elihu club.

Other graduates of Yale this year who studied at New Trier are Henry Godfrey Phillips, Jr., of Evanston, and Frederick Roe of Chicago.

Mrs. Frank E. Plowman, 421 Linden avenue, has left Winnetka to visit her mother and sister, who live in Hollywood, Cal.
