

Announcement

The Genthner Market is now owned and operated by the PALACE MARKET CO.

Phone
Wilmette
2814

Palace Market

1145 Wilmette Ave.
Wilmette
1559 Sherman Ave.
Evanston

Phone
Wilmette
2814

Leg
Genuine
Spring
Lamb

45c lb.
(Mint Free)

Native
Pot Roast
22c lb.

We wish to announce that there will be no change in personnel of this new market—the same men will give the courteous and pleasing service you have been receiving.

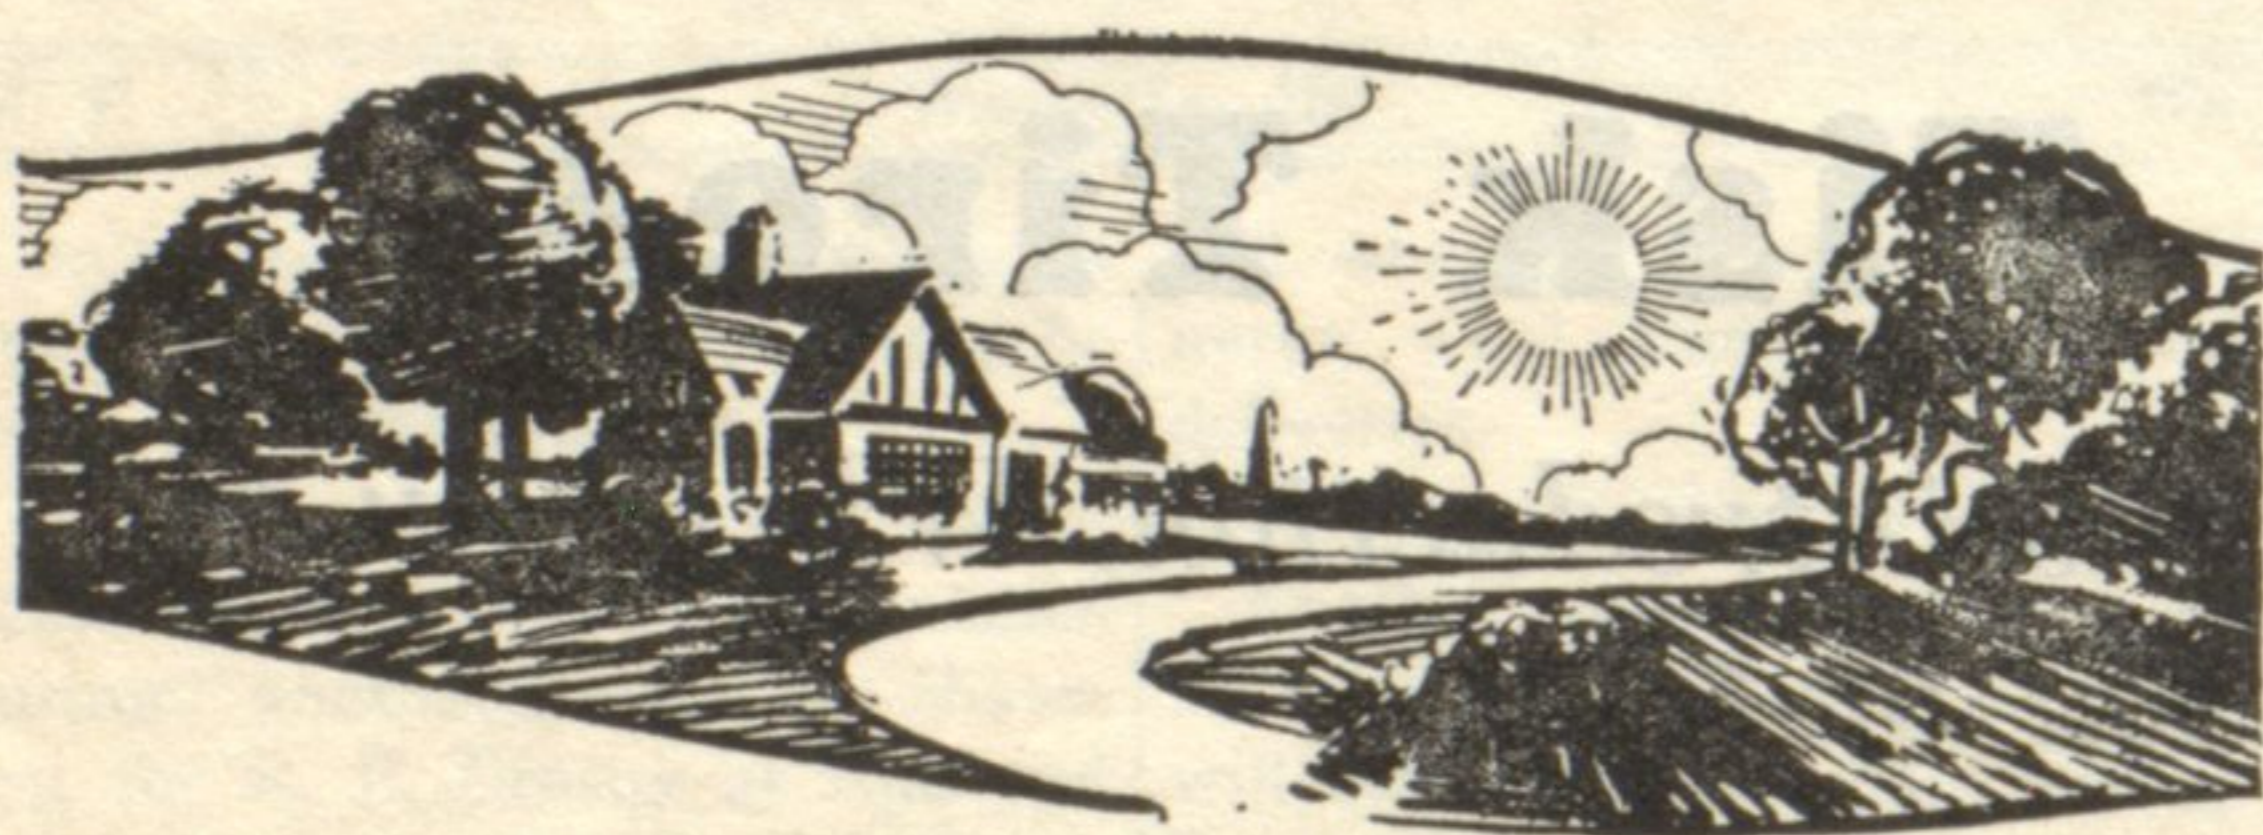

Fresh
Dressed Hens
for pot roasting or stewing
40c lb.

Calves
Sweet
Breads

60c lb.

All Kinds of Cooked
Meats
Fresh
Butter
and Eggs
Always on Hand

The PALACE CASH MARKETS are the North Shore's Leading Markets

For Your Cottage

TODAY good rugs for the summer cottage are recognized as quite necessary as for the suburban or town home. See the ideal floor coverings for this purpose with which Mestjian Brothers can furnish you.

And while you are away for the summer, leave the rugs from your home in our care. They remain insured as long as we have them. We'll clean and repair them and have them in readiness for your return.

*Mestjian Brothers have never violated confidence.
We carry insurance on every rug in our care.*

MESTJIAN BROS.

Incorporated

511 Main St.
Wilmette 1949

Wilmette
University 5050

Miss Betty Reach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Reach, 844 Prospect avenue, Winnetka, left this week to spend two months at Camp Kohanna, Maple City, Mich. Frank Reach will go to Camp Court Oreilles, Hayward, Wis., to spend two months.

Bride and Groom Depart on Motor Trip to Colorado

The North Shore Methodist Episcopal church, Glencoe, was adorned with palms, ferns, marguerites, peonies, and candles, and the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. A. Forberg, 960 Linden avenue, where the reception was held, was decorated with the same flowers on Tuesday evening, June 29, on the occasion of the marriage of Miss Serena Elizabeth Forberg to Glen Llewellyn Jenkins of Sparta, Wis. The Rev. Horace G. Smith, assisted by the Rev. George MacAdam, officiated. The bride's gown was of white satin with an overskirt of Chantilly lace, and orange blossoms edged her cap veil of tulle. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, valley lilies, and white sweet peas.

Her maid of honor, Miss Mabel Forberg, wore a frock of pale blue taffeta, with a full, scalloped skirt with appliqued ribbon bowknots, and a basque waist. She carried a bouquet of Columbia roses and orchid sweet peas.

The bridesmaids, Miss Kathryn Paulson of Chicago, and Miss Ruth Forberg, were gowned, respectively, in frocks of peach color and green taffeta, made with basque waists and bouffant skirts with tulle at the bottom. Their flowers were roses and sweet peas in harmonizing shades. best man, and Lloyd Kennedy of James Davis of Madison, Wis., was Madison and Ronald Campbell of Winnetka ushered.

Mrs. William R. Shuster of Glencoe played the organ and Lloyd Odh sang.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins left for Newton, Kan., to attend the wedding of the roommate of the bride, and the four young people will motor to Colorado Springs. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins will reside in Madison where the bridegroom is an instructor in pharmacy and chemistry at the University of Wisconsin.

Mrs. H. G. Roth, 429 Provident avenue, left Thursday for a month's visit in Brookfield, Mo., and points further west.

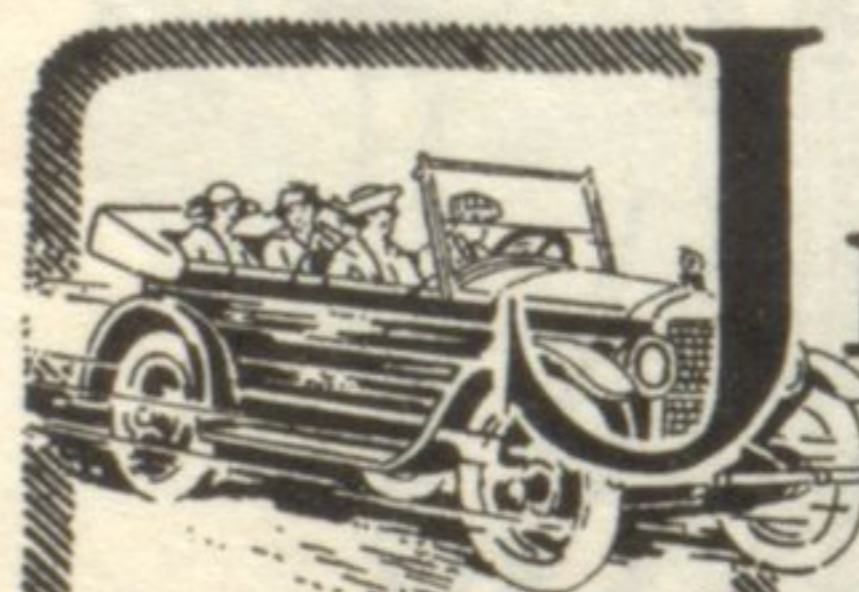

YOUR FRIENDS EAT AT THE WINNETKA CAFE

You'll be pleased to know how many of your friends eat at the Winnetka Cafe. They come because they know where to get a good meal at moderate cost.

WINNETKA CAFE

730 1/2 Elm St. Phone 387
Half block east of station

JONES ELECTRIC SERVICE

PHONE
WINNETKA
1848
3 CARLTON
BLDG.
715 OAK ST.
WINNETKA

OFFICIAL
DEALER
FOR DELCO
REMY
BOSCH
GRAY & DAVIS
SPARTAN HORN
ECLIPSE
BENDIX DRIVE

'Can't I Buy a Cheaper Battery?'

"Sure you can. We won't argue that with you for a minute.

You pay less money and you get less battery."

Try a Willard for your car—that's quality, and at the right price.