

New Theatre Brings Balaban & Katz Entertainment to North Shore

Thousands of north shore residents have attended and marveled at the Norshore theater since its recent opening on Howard avenue as the latest of the Balaban and Katz super-theaters. 1—Night view of the Norshore on the opening day. The brilliant lighting can be seen for miles around. Enough current is used to light a good sized town. 2—The famous Villa d'Este near Rome was the inspiration of this stairway and court-like arrangement known as a Roman exedra. 3—Day view of the unique exterior of the Norshore. The lines are adapted from the modern Italian to harmonize with the Roman of its inside. The combination of the building line with the electrical display is a departure from ordinary theater designing. 4—Part of the 20,000 who attended the opening performances. 5—Front view of theater taken at night. 6—A section of the mezzanine foyer and promenade showing the bases of the imposing columns that flank the main lobby. The design is Roman of the period of the Caesars. 7—Chauncey Haines who was brought from California to preside at the grande organ. Classical music and popular tunes are performed equally well by the smiling young organist.

'On to Europe' Boys
Enjoy New York
On Eve of Sailing

Symon Bows, of Wilmette, and Walter Schroeder, of Glencoe, who were the winners in the "On To Europe" subscription campaign of Lloyd Hollister, Inc., sailed from New York on June 30. The boys, who are from New Trier High school, will visit England, France, Belgium, and Holland under the direction of the Mentor tours, on the 33 day trip. They are accompanied by Gordon Van Kirk, a member of the New Trier High school faculty.

The "On To Europe" subscription salesmanship contest was successfully concluded recently. Ralph Heinenman was also one of the winners of the contest, but he preferred a Northwestern university scholarship in place of the European trip as he is a native of Sweden and wishes to continue his education in America.

The following letter was received from Gordon Van Kirk:

"Editor:
The boys arrived in New York at 8 o'clock last night, according to schedule. They reported a rather warm trip from Chicago, but were much pleased at seeing the Falls.

"We had dinner at the McAlpin and spent the night here also. Last evening we took a very interesting bus ride to New York's Chinatown. The boys seem to be enjoying New York. It is their first trip to the city.

"Our boat sails at noon today from Hoboken. Mrs. Blair, who is to be in charge of the party until we reach Europe, is at the Prince George hotel.
