

The PLAY DAYS

are the best days for having new photographs made of the children. We find summer the time that children make the most charming and attractive pictures in your home, garden or in the studio.

Music Man Journeys to Colorado for Health

L. A. Tompsett, manager of the Winnetka store of the North Shore Talking Machine Company, 554 Center street, will leave next week for Colorado Springs where he expects to remain until the first of September. Mr. Tompsett is making the temporary change for the benefit of his health. He has never recovered from the effects of a severe attack of the flu which he suffered about two months ago, and his physician advises that the rest in Colorado climate will restore his health. Mr. Tompsett says he has enjoyed a nice business since locating in Winnetka, and expects to return to the north shore when he comes back from Colorado in the fall.

ACTS AS CLERK

Village Manager H. L. Woolhiser has been elected village clerk pro tem during the absence of Mrs. Stella Winslow, who is in California on her vacation. Mrs. Winslow left last week and will be gone two weeks, it was said.

Jacksonville, Ill., has the most unique brass band in the world. It is composed entirely of deaf boys who play music, accurate in tone, solely through the knowledge of notes, guided by vibrations.

Miss Marian Keeney, 523 Hawthorn lane, is dancing in the ballet of the Ravinia Opera company.
