

Quinlan and Tyson Tell of Large Acreage Sale

Quinlan and Tyson, Inc., announce the sale of fifteen acres on the west side of Milwaukee avenue, about one-half mile north of Wheeling, from A. J. Lindner to Dr. Earl D. Kelly, scout executive of the Evanston Boy Scout organization. Dr. Kelly bought the property for investment. F. M. Orndorff of the Winnetka office of Quinlan and Tyson, Inc., who is specializing in acreage in Wheeling and along the Skokie valley line, as well as in Winnetka, was the broker.

Lake Forest Garden Club Has Final Tour Saturday

With incredible celerity comes the time for announcing that the final tour of gardens under the auspices of the Lake Forest Garden club is at hand. Saturday, July 17, will conclude the seven Saturday glimpses of bright-hued color spots of beauty dotting country estates in Winnetka, Hubbard Woods and Lake Forest, which have been available to all.

The payment of a nominal admission charge admits one to all of the four gardens on Saturday, July 17.

Mrs. Charles H. Schweppe, recent hostess to the Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Sweden, Mrs. Louis E. Laffin, Mrs. A. A. Carpenter, and Mrs. De Forest Hulburd, will open the grounds of their Lake Forest homes in hospitality from 11 in the morning until 7 at night for the inspection of those interested in floriculture.

Only seven states yield more petroleum oil than Illinois and only six have more producing wells.

Joint I. O. O. F. Picnic Proves Great Success

The picnic of the three chapters of the I. O. O. F. lodge held from 10 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock at night, Sunday, July 11, at the Riverside forest preserve, was reported to have been an unusual success. More than four hundred persons attended and enjoyed the races, crackerjack, ice cream cones, ball games and favors, the three chapters participating, including the Rebecca lodges, were Evanston, Wilmette and Northbrook.

Families began to arrive at the grounds at about 10 o'clock in the morning, and they came and went all day, several groups remaining until early in the evening.

The results of the races were as follows: Noble Grands' race, Harry Wood, Evanston; Past Noble Grands' race, Dr. Fred Doolittle; Third Degree Members' race, Carl Rydell, Evanston; women's race, Mrs. Russell D'Arcy; horse-shoe contest, first place, Fred Radner, Winnetka, and William L. Blankshiem, Wilmette; second place, Mr. Polley, Wilmette and Waukegan, and Nash Cazell, Winnetka; watermelon eating contest—children, George Kassner, James Kassner; ball throwing contest, Margery Lips, Elizabeth Lips; baseball game between Evanston and Wilmette lodges won by Evanston, 12-5.

On June 1, 1926, practically twenty-four per cent of all the counties in the United States were actively engaged in eradicating tuberculosis from cattle within their borders. The estimated cattle population of these 762 counties is 21,000,000.

WINNETKA FOLKS

By C. R. Patchen

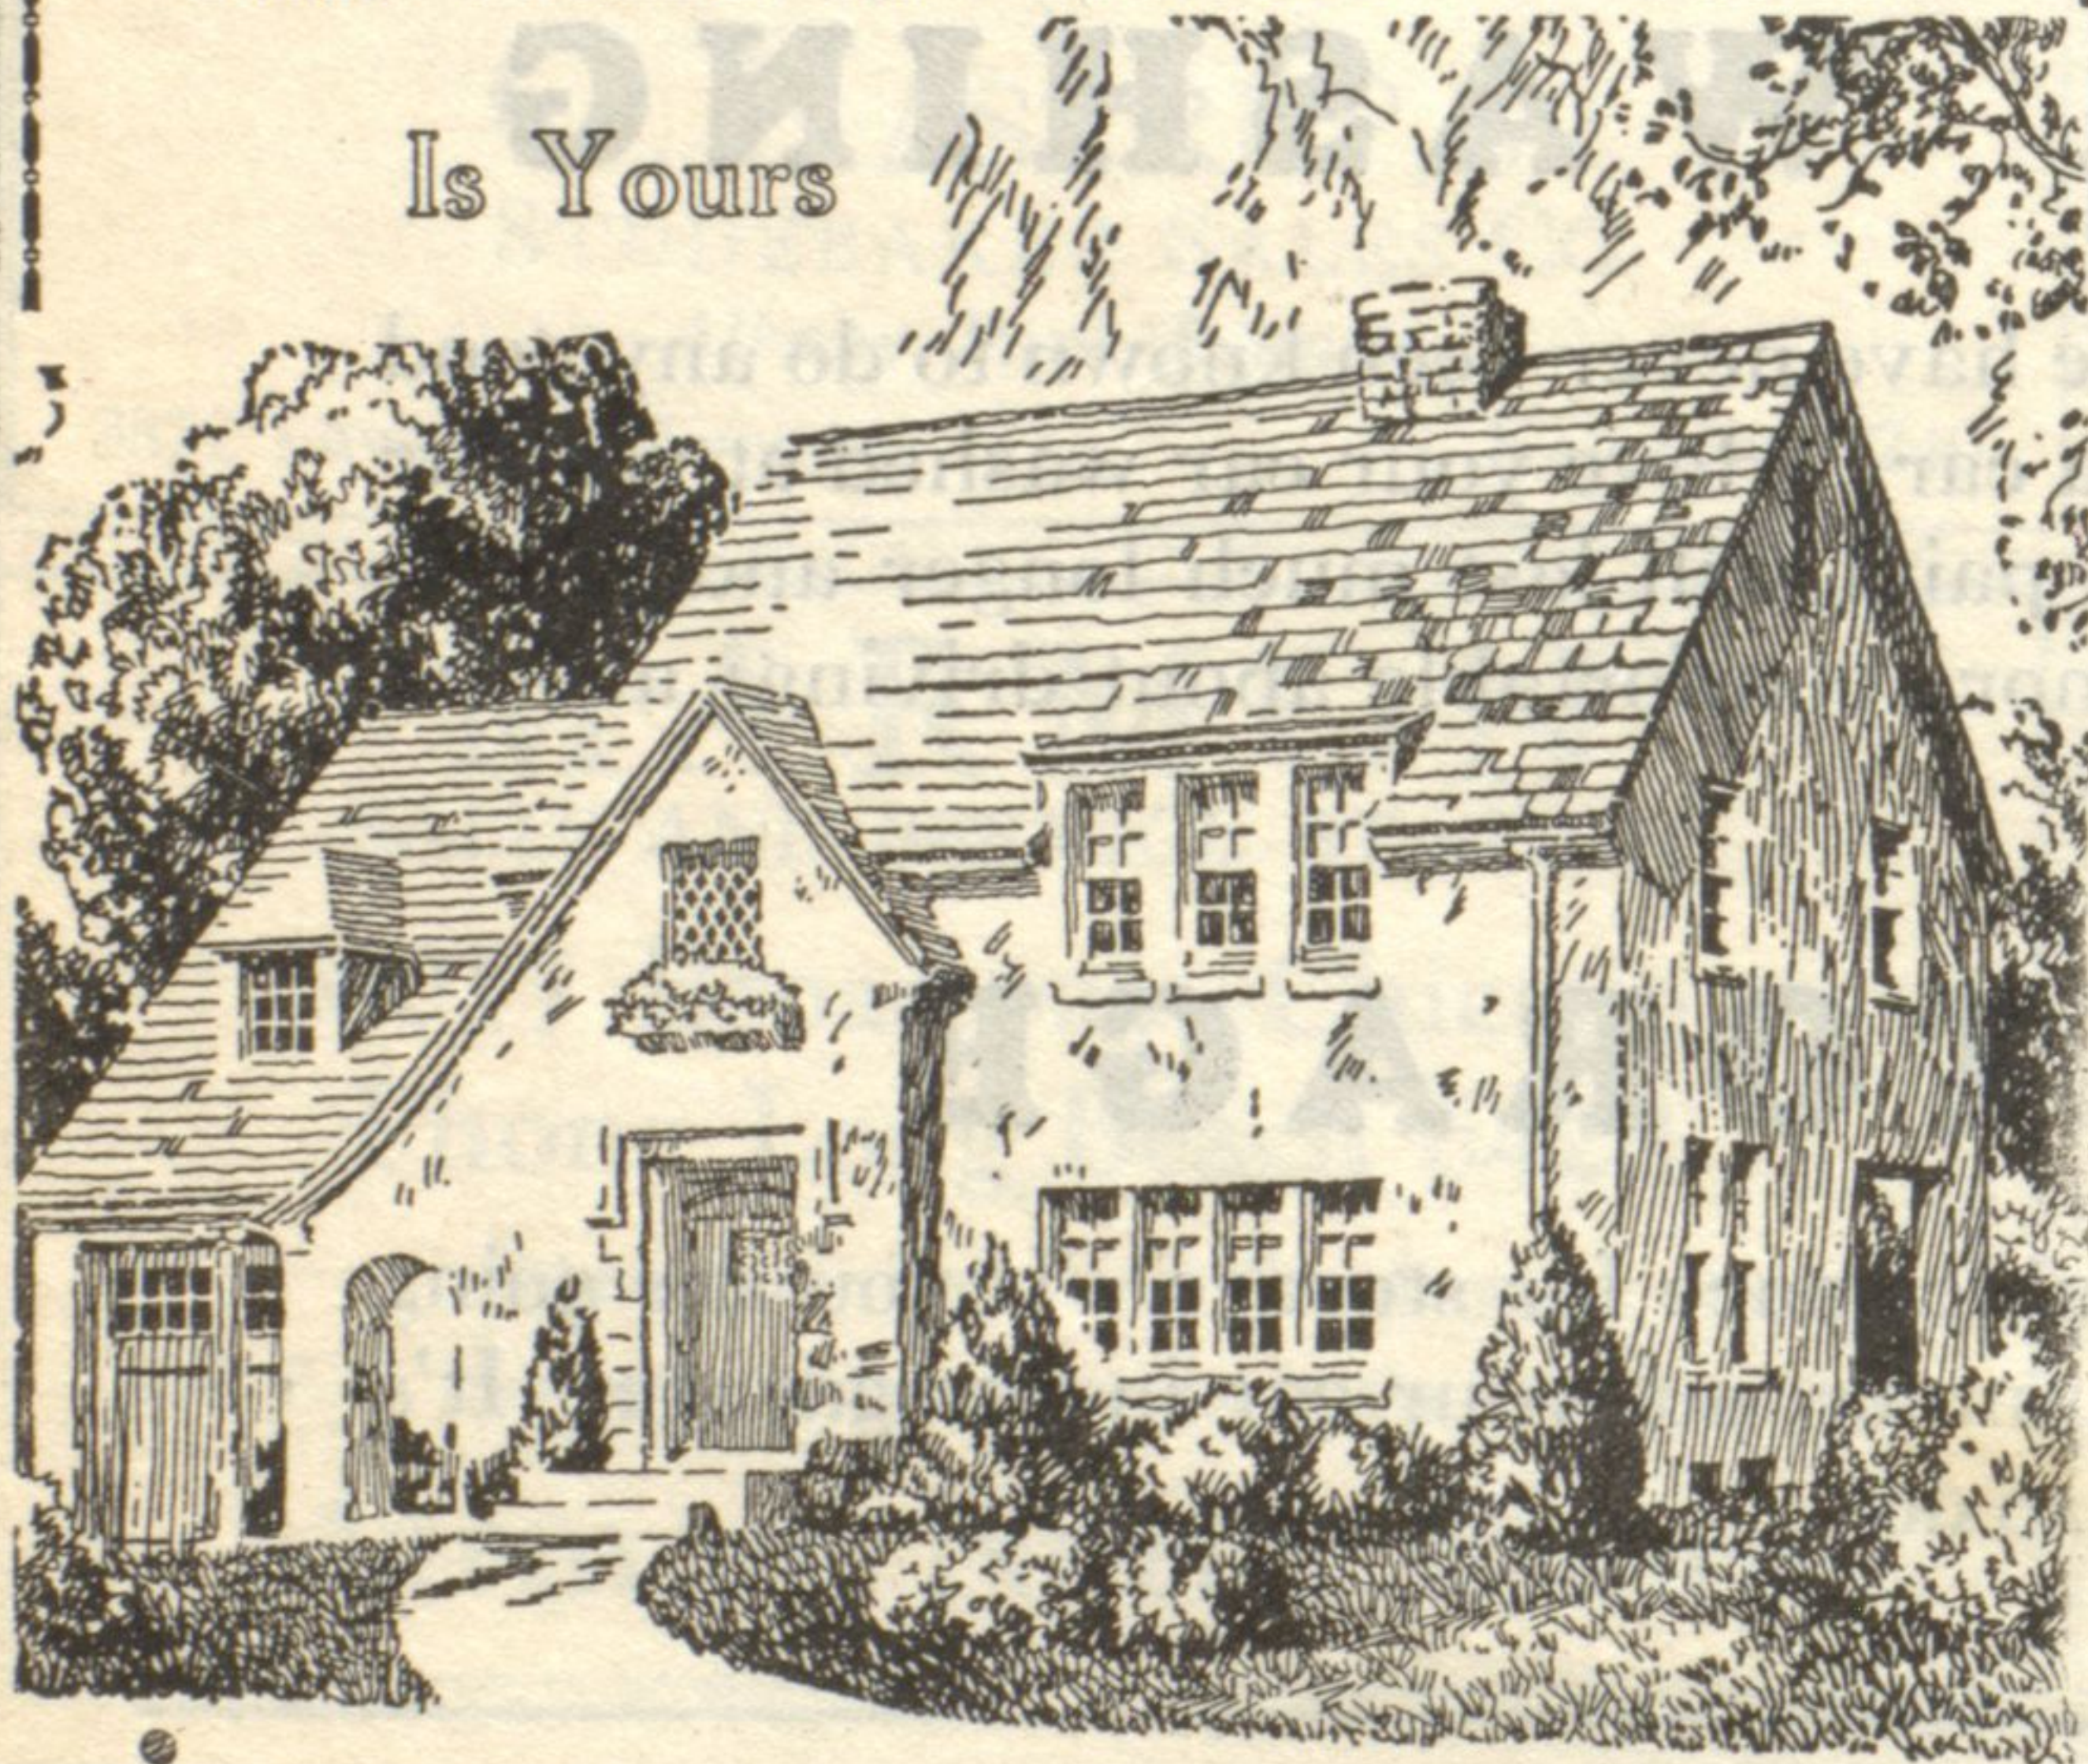

Splendid assortment of bathing necessities and summer accessories at saving prices. Kodak supplies, twenty-four hour developing and printing service. Summer reading at a few cents a week.

Community Pharmacy

750 Elm Street

Phone Winnetka 164

This Home in Glenview Borders Is Yours

For a small down payment and the balance like rent. You'll enjoy the ideal surroundings. The North Shore Golf Club is just across the road. Sewer, water, roads, gas and electric mains are all in and paid for. Telephone Wilmette 974-J or sign and return this coupon.

C. P. Evans, 616 Gregory Ave., Wilmette, Ill. I'd like a home in Glenview Borders. Please tell me about your home-building plan.

Name
Address

WINNETKA BUILDING NEWS

Vol. 1 Winnetka, Ill. No. 19

The annual fish stories are beginning to come in.

The Cadenhead Co. have under construction a very attractive structolite home at 1046 Starr road. Structolite is making rapid strides in Winnetka. Come in and let us tell you its advantages.

Speaking of critical moments, how about the moment when the barber reaches your Adam's apple just as you have to swallow?

F. A. Cooper has started another one of his attractive homes in his "English Village" at the west end of Washington st., Glencoe. These popular homes are insulated with Balsam Wool and furnished by us.

Ever try to follow a strange road after half a dozen local citizens have described it to you?

Our increasing Building Mate- rial business has necessitated our installing a "clam" and new style "hoppers." This will assure our customers of a more "Sudden" service than ever.

This is the time when the average guy enjoys a big piece of gooseberry pie.

A leaky roof can do a lot of damage to your house. Before the damage occurs, better re-roof with Bird's Twin Shingles. They are air-tight, water-tight, reasonable in price and make a good looking roof.

"He who follows another is always behind" observes Al. Eckart.

For that little repair job you will always find what lumber you need here, and you receive the same courtesy with a small order as with a large one.

Great weather, isn't it?

Winnetka Coal - Lumber Co.

823 Spruce Street
Winnetka 734