

WINNETKA TALK

"Tenting Tonight"

Why go up to the lakes and camp, when you can pitch your tent right here in the heart of the village, eat your meals out under the trees and everything. Here we have our intrepid firemen housed temporarily under canvas while their brand new and unusually attractive station is in course of construction.

Saturday, August 14, 1926

FIVE CENTS