

Car and Delivery Truck in Elm Street Crash

A Ford touring car driven by Carl Papa, of 902 Linden avenue, and a light delivery Ford truck driven by James L. Sutherland, of 938 Cherry street, collided at Elm and Linden, Tuesday evening about 8 o'clock. Papa was driving east on Elm and Sutherland, who was driving in the opposite direction, attempted to turn into Linden, when the cars crashed. Neither of the drivers were injured and Papa's car was little damaged, but a wheel was knocked off the truck.

Opera Star to Appear at Children's Party

One of the treats of the season will be offered at the Children's concert at Ravinia Thursday afternoon, August 26, when Miss Helen Freund of the Chicago Civic and Ravinia Opera companies will sing the music of the Doll episode from the "Tales of Hoffman" with a group of children taking part in the pantomime.

There will undoubtedly be a capacity attendance at this concert which will be the ninth of the series and consequently next to the last to be presented this season.

The great interest and enthusiasm shown by the children for the Thursday afternoon concerts has been highly gratifying to the members of the committee in charge.

Each Thursday afternoon entertainment program this summer has been in charge of some one of the north shore towns. This week Thursday was Highland Park day and the children of the Eli Bates Home were the guests of the Ravinia Club and were entertained at luncheon by the Highland Park committee. Basket lunches were served in the park after which the children attended the concert. After the musical numbers by the Chicago Symphony orchestra, conducted by Eric DeLamarter, the program was given by a group of child artists, Mildred Waldman, pianist; John Horn, cellist; Harry Mazur, violinist, and Saul Dorfman, pianist.

An interesting program is being arranged for the tenth and last concert Thursday afternoon, September 2, which will close a most successful Children's Thursday afternoon concert season.

Miss Marion Osten of 913 Cherry street, with Miss Penelope Gooch of Ravenswood, left last Saturday to join a group of young folks at Hemlock Lodge resort, Eagle River, Wis., where they will spend their vacation. They will return about September 1.
