

WINNETKA TALK

Our Village Hall

This is a view of the new Village hall from the rear, looking up Chestnut court from the Horace Mann School grounds. The structure presents quite as attractive an appearance from the rear as from the front. Eventually Chestnut court will form a link in a huge community development west of the Village hall, with a community center built where the Horace Mann school now stands.

Saturday, August 28, 1926

FIVE CENTS