

College Wardrobes

must include, for one thing, either a knitted suit or dress—the suits have that “crew” neck which takes its name from Varsity sweaters; some have the popular V-neck, too. Jerseys and Friscas make frocks that belong in the college girl's going-to-school collection.

Informality is the note on campus—even party clothes borrow a certain carefreeness from afternoon frocks.

Leather coats, windbreakers, sweaters (such gay ones), these help make the campus colorful.

Water Clown Demonstrates Novelties at Beach Day

Omar Miller, beach master at the Winnetka bathing beach and a member of the Northwestern university swimming team gave a demonstration of comic novelty swimming at the Wilmette beach carnival held last Friday afternoon at the Wilmette bathing beach. Miller, in an absurd bathing suit, kept the spectators roaring with laughter at his antics for a quarter of an hour. He demonstrated various comic strokes and dives, utilizing the springboard on one of the rafts for this purpose. He was loudly applauded by the large crowd gathered at the beach when he had finished his exhibitions. Miller's antics are features of the big Northwestern university swimming meets during the school year.

Shut-Ins Benefit From Sale Today at Highland Park

North shore people who are at home now, at the end of the summer social season and before the fall season has started, were able to attend the sale of the products of the Vocational Society for Shut-Ins, which was given yesterday at the Moraine hotel in Highland Park. For the shut-ins there are no social seasons, and, as their products must be disposed of for their benefit the year 'round, it is simply the good fortune of people who are home now that this sale is being given between seasons when many of our residents are still away.

Mrs. J. Waller Marshall of Winnetka, president of the Vocational Society for Shut-Ins, and the directors of the society were in charge of the sale, which was held yesterday from 10 o'clock in the morning until 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Frank Cushing, manager of the Moraine hotel and one of the supporters of the society, and Miss Elizabeth Robertson of Highland Park, a member of the present board of directors and the first secretary of the society, were among those doing a great deal of the planning for the sale. The sale at Highland Park last year resulted in $700 for the benefit of the Shut-Ins, and this amount is expected to be exceeded by the results of this sale.

Mrs. Laird Bell of Winnetka, will also help the work of the society by sponsoring a showing of the stock at the Huron Mountain club in Michigan, where she has been spending the summer. Mrs. William Wrigley, Jr., before leaving for her residence at Catalina islands, placed an order with the society for a large number of hooked rugs. The society was also recently helped by the will of Mrs. Montgomery Ward, in which she remembered the shut-ins with a bequest of $5,000.

Patronesses of the sale are Mrs. Walter Baldwin, Mrs. H. M. Brown, Mrs. Alexander Carqueville, Mrs. David R. Clarke, Mrs. Charles H. Dennis, Mrs. Earl Gibbs, Mrs. Samuel Hastings, Mrs. Frank Horn, Mrs. Mary Hoffman, Mrs. Arthur Jerrems, Jr., Mrs. George B. Lake, Mrs. W. J. Louderback, Mrs. Waller Marshall, Mrs. Henry E. Mason, Mrs. Kellogg Speed, Mrs. George M. Stevens, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Stein, Mrs. Sidney Stein, Mrs. Eric Scudder, Mrs. Franklin E. Vaughn, Mrs. Page Wainright, Mrs. F. Wiegand and Mrs. Harrison T. Yeaton.

CLOSE HIGHLAND PARK OFFICE

Frank and Arthur Grasset of the Highland Park Offices of Heinsen and Kroll, Inc., have resigned, it was announced this week, and henceforth all business of the concern north of Winnetka is to be handled in the Winnetka office at 720 Elm street.
