Lake Shore Club Scene of Flower Show This Week

The North Shore Garden club, of which Mrs. J. Harry Selz of Sheridan road, Glencoe, is president, gave a successful flower show in the living room and porches of the Lake Shore Country club Tuesday afternoon. The exhibitions and arrangements were considered the most beautiful the club had ever exhibited in its annual flower shows. Prizes were awarded for various types of arrangements and kinds of flowers. Miss Aimie Rothschild of Highland Park was chairman in charge of the flower show.

Six or seven dinner and luncheon table flower arrangements were shown and prizes for them were won by Mrs. Harold E. Foreman of 955 Sheridan road, Glencoe, Jesse L. Strauss of Sheridan road, Glencoe, and Mrs. Edgar R. Born, also of Sheridan road, Glencoe. Flowers from Samuel Marx' garden, 1140 Sheridan road, Glencoe, won many of the prizes as well as those from the gardens of Edward L. Glaser of Lincoln avenue, Glencoe, Julius Rosenwald of Highland Park, and George Pick of Highland Park.

Displays from the Louis B. Kuppenheimer estate on Laurel avenue, Winnetka, carried off many honors in first, second and third prizes. They placed first for gladiolus, annual larkspur and phlox; for the best collection of vegetables, of which he exhibited fifty varieties; and for plums and apples. The Kuppenheimer astors, annual phlox, xenias and carnations won second place, and the dahlias, American scarbosa and a vase of mixed flowers from the same estate won third prize. Mr. Kuppenheimer also very graciously opened his gardens for the afternoon, and visitors to the flower show were invited to see them.

Mrs. J. Harry Selz won first prize for an exhibition of aratum lilies. Mrs. Tiffany Blake was one of the judges who passed upon the exhibits.

The North Shore Garden club has been doing splendid work all year, quietly and thoroughly. Organized ten years ago by Mrs. Selz, it has supplied the United States Veterans hospital at Great Lakes with flowers continually. Mrs. Selz made possible the garden at the Speedway hospital at Maywood, and is working to have one at Great Lakes. All of the vegetables exhibited Tuesday were sent to the Sunset camp for girls, and all the flowers were sent to the Veterans hospital at Great Lakes. The money prizes were given to the gardeners.

North Shore Women Among Leaders in Title Golf Event

Interest in woman's golf events at the various local clubs has this week given way to the more general interest directed toward the center for a few days of the western woman's golfing world, Olympia Fields, where the Woman's Western Golf association tourney is being held, from Monday to Saturday. Although the tournament got off Monday to an unfavorable start due to inauspicious weather conditions, as the alternate driving rain and drizzle managed to keep the course wet all day, the north shore was well represented by successful players, and at the end of the first round matches on Tuesday two of the sixteen players who remained in the tourney were from the north shore clubs, Miss Dorothy Klotz of Indian Hill and Miss Virginia Ingram of Sunset Ridge.

Miss Klotz was scheduled to play Miss Elsie Hilding of the Highland club, Grand Rapids, in the second round match play on Wednesday, and Miss Ingram was to meet Mrs. Perry Fiske of the Kishwaukee club, De Kalb.

Still another local player, Mrs. John Arends of the Wilmette Golf club, was successful in the qualifying round on Monday, turning in a card of 100 to the 103 of her opponent, Mrs. R. C. Greenlease of Blue Hills, Kansas City. Miss Klotz turned in a score of 92 in the qualifying round and Miss Ingram played a 97.

In the first round of match play on Tuesday, Miss Klotz defeated Mrs. T. C. Earnest of Calumet, 7 and 6, and Miss Ingram defeated Miss Lillian McEntee of Olympia Fields, 5 and 4.

Other players from north shore golf clubs who entered the tournament are Mrs. Paul Chace of Skokie, Mrs. W. J. Stein of Sunset Ridge, Mrs. Alan Dixon of Indian Hill, Mrs. Fred Coombs of Sunset Ridge, Mrs. C. A. Klotz of Indian Hill, Miss Eva May Johnson of Skokie, and Mrs. J. H. McNamara of Wilmette.

Dora Lillian Danby Is Bride of Winnetka Man

The marriage of Miss Dora Lillian Danby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Danby, 285 Woodlawn avenue, Glencoe, to Sherburn D. Thiele, 955 Elm street, Winnetka, son of Mrs. C. Thiele of Pewaukee, Wis., took place Thursday, August 19, at 4:00 o'clock in the bride's home. The Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin performed the ceremony, which took place before the fireplace banked with garden flowers.

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Eugene Bench of Elm street, Winnetka, attended her as matron of honor, while Harold Brown of Spruce street, Winnetka, acted as best man.

Miss Danby was gowned in a peach colored taffeta dress with a tight bodice. The skirt was trimmed with four rows of dainty ruffles picqued in silver. Her slippers and hose matched the dress. She carried a bouquet of tea roses and babies' breath.

A reception followed the wedding for seventy-five guests. The bride's uncle, Harry Turvey, an opera singer from Toledo, Ohio, was among those who attended the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Thiele will make their home at 285 Woodlawn avenue, Glencoe.
