

NORSHORE THEATRE

Edwin Carewe's epic of the open road, "Pals First," produced by Mr. Carewe in memory of his own experience as a tramp twenty years ago, comes to the Balaban and Katz' North Shore Theatre on Sunday. The story has one episode which deals with the life of three hoboes, and there are many intimate touches Carewe interpolated which occurred to him during his own "Weary Willie" days.

The three tramps are played by Lloyd Hughes, George Cooper and Alec B. Francis with Dolores Del Rio playing the featured feminine role and Edward Earle playing another of his doctor roles.

The second half of the week will bring Marshall Neilan's newest picture, "Diplomacy," an absorbing mystery drama in which Blanche Sweet is starre.

BUY WILMETTE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Clarke, of Chicago, have purchased the new English house erected by F. H. Gathercoal, at 1750 Washington avenue, Wilmette, and will occupy the same September 1. This is a six-room house, of stucco, with exterior beams and other features of the strictly English type, and in keeping with the many other pretty homes on Washington.

Corner Property in Great Demand for Home Locations

The rapidity with which the few remaining choice corner lots in Wilmette, particularly on the east side, are being developed as home sites this season, is brought forcefully to attention of those interested in building activities by a mere perusal of building permits which have been issued during the past few weeks.

Three blocks of Thirteenth street, as a section, leads in this activity. At the southeast corner of Thirteenth street and Greenwood avenue, North Shore Homes, Inc., is completing for Herbert Bach, of Chicago, a $50,000 home.

At the northwest corner of Thirteenth street and Greenwood avenue, James Crabb is completing a pretty $20,000 brick home for N. A. McNamara.

At the southwest corner of Thirteenth street and Ashland avenue, Mr. Crabb also is just finishing a very pretty nine room brick house for George Bennett, of Wilmette.

Ground was broken last week for a $35,000 home at the northwest corner of Thirteenth street and Ashland avenue, which Halvarson & Alonquist are building for John R. Willott, of Chicago.

At the northeast corner of Seventh street and Lake avenue, Louis Miller, builder, is erecting an $18,000 home for H. L. Jenkins.

The southwest corner of Eleventh street and Chestnut avenue, is being developed with a $23,000 home, which R. E. Crosby, the Winnetka builder is erecting for Frank P. Kuttan, of Evanston.

Henry N. Gage Residence Purchased for $47,500

The Henry N Gage residence at the northwest corner of Twelfth street and Greenwood avenue, has been sold to W. C. Farrar, also of Wilmette. The sale was made by Mr. Gage, direct, who, it is said, received the price at which he has been holding the property, $47,500. It is one of the finest corners in the village, having a frontage of two hundred feet on Greenwood and a depth of 176 1/2 feet. The property is improved with a large twelve-room stucco house. The Gages, upon giving possession about the middle of September, will take an apartment in Chicago, on the north side.
