VILLAGE THEATRE

"A Hero of the Big Snows," the latest Rin-Tin-Tin picture for Warner Bros., directed by Herman Raymaker, is coming to the Village theater next Monday and Tuesday, August 30 and 31. Rinty numbers among his enormous fan following natural dog lovers, and many who have become dog lovers through seeing this canine wonder of the screen. His uncanny intelligence and remarkable beauty added to the intensive training given him by his owner, Lee Duncan, makes Rin-Tin-Tin the outstanding member of animal stars of the films.

His present picture is the film version of the Ewart Adamson story, and abounds in thrilling situations which are said to give Rinty ample opportunity to display the gift which has brought him fame.

There will also be a Mack Sennett comedy, "The Merry Widower," and a Pathe news reel.

Monta Bell, who is responsible for such cinematic gems as "Broadway After Dark," "The Snob," "The King on Main Street" and others, has found a new field for his efforts.

In "The Boy Friend," his last Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film coming to the Village theater on Wednesday, September 1, Bell has one of the most charming satires in years. While a great many people will understand the picture and enjoy it only in the surface vein which it appears to be directed, there is an undercurrent of wit, and Bell went about the studio with his tongue in his cheek much of the time. "The Boy Friend" is a satire on the etiquette book, disguised in this case under "The Book of Charm," and offers Bell dozens of opportunities for the display of his particular brand of humor.

In addition there will be an Aesop's Fable, "The Bumper Crop," and a Pathe review.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 2, 3 and 4, the feature attraction will be Buster Keaton in his latest comedy scream, "Battling Butler." In this picture he gets away from most of his old "gags" and produces an entirely new brand of comedy with pleasing results. He is still the same old Buster, conspicuously minus the smile, however.

In addition to this picture there will be a two-reel film of Lieut. Commander Byrd's flight over the north pole and a Pathe news reel.

THE HOYBURN PROGRAM

Tempestuous "Nell Gwyn," whose laughter, passion and tears are brought to the screen with arresting power by Dorothy Gish, graces the silver sheet at the Hoyburn theater, featuring the current picture. The picture was filmed in London and the cast includes several superior English stage stars. When the bill changes Monday Milton Sill's "Puppets" will be on the screen. War scenes and prison camp scenes taken at Fort Schuyler, N. Y., one of the oldest historic forts in the country, are attractive bits of this feature. Gertrude Olmstead is leading lady with Mr. Sills. "The Cat's Pajamas," called "a serious comedy" starring Betty Bronson and Ricardo Cortez, and featuring Theodore Roberts and Arlette Marchal, takes the screen with Wednesday's change of program.

THE NEW EVANSTON

Two headliners, Zane Grey's "Forlorn River" and Ben Turpin's newest comedy, "When a Man's a Prince," distinguish the current showings at the New Evanston theater. The former stars Jack Holt in a popular role. "So This Is Paris," starring Monte Blue, Patsy Ruth Miller and with Lilyan Tashman and Andre Beranger in support, will have a three-day run beginning Monday. It is a farce comedy, the tale of the love tangles of two young married couples in Paris, the city of romance.
