WINNETKA

"Who Governs You?" Is Sunday Sermon Subject

"Who Governs You?" will be the theme of a sermon by the Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin, at the Winnetka Congregational church, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. It will be a sermon of especial interest to young people, it is said, and young people leaving soon for schools and colleges are especially urged to attend. The Lord's Supper will be observed, at this time. The evening sermon at 8 o'clock, also by Mr. Goodwin, will be on "The Heritage of Labor," a Labor day sermon. Rev. James Austin Richards will again occupy the pulpit at the morning service on September 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber, 468 Ridge avenue, returned Tuesday, August 31, from an extended trip through the West. Mr. Lieber left on July 28, and drove to Denver, Col., where his son, Perry, had gone on a business trip. From there he visited Estes Park, joining Mrs. Lieber in Cheyenne, Wyo. Leaving Cheyenne, they went to the coast, and included Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Diego and Mexico in their trip, returning to Winnetka this week.

Highly Pleased

Stating that "the people of the North Shore have shown conclusively that they recognize and appreciate our policy of fine qualities at definitely lower prices," George Lytton, vice-president of The Hub, whose picture appears above, declared himself greatly pleased with the first six months of his firm's venture in Evanston. He said that he was particularly pleased with the large following of boys and young men. "We're enthusiastic over the north shore," he declared, "and we're doing everything in our power to make the north shore enthusiastic over us."

Fuller Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dean, 411 Willow road, John McEwen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McEwen, 808 Hill road, and Billy Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Miller, 660 Pine street, returned last Thursday from a month's cruise on the schooner, "Elizabeth," as the guests of Lynn A. Williams and his son, Lynn, 568 Ingleside park, Evanston.

They touched the following ports in their cruise, Mackinac Island; Les Cheneaux islands; Deborah, Canada; Desbarats, Canada; and numerous ports in Lake Superior. The farthest north they went was Nipigon, where they found excellent fishing.

The schooner sailed from and returned to its mooring in the Beumont harbor in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Mare Newman, formerly of Winnetka, have left the North Shore hotel in Evanston, where they have been living, and have taken an apartment at 1318 Hyde Park boulevard, Chicago. Margaret Newman, their daughter, has just returned from Camp Agawak, Minocqua, Wis., where she spent the summer as a counselor. She will enter as a freshman at the Chicago Normal School of Physical Education this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cochran, 370 Chestnut street, are taking an extended trip through the Canadian Rockies to the west coast. They have included Lake Louise, Banff, Vancouver and Victoria in the trip, and expect to return to Winnetka in about three weeks. While they are gone, Miss Anne Clark is staying with their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Thorne, 474 Willow road, left this week to visit their daughter, Mrs. J. H. Batchelder, at Charlottesville, Va.
