

LINCOLN TOWN CARS

THESSE distinctive chauffeur-driven cars possess the individuality that comes only with the finest custom design. They are appreciated particularly by men and women in the world of affairs who seek the utmost dignity and refinement in a motor car. Within, these town cars are luxuriously appointed and comfortable to the extreme. Wherever seen, they meet with enthusiastic approbation.

CABRIOLET BY HOLBROOK

THE pleasures of an open car and the privacy of a seclusive cab are features of this fully collapsible Lincoln Cabriolet which is one of the most exclusive chauffeur-driven vehicles in the Lincoln line. Six tires are furnished as standard equipment, spares being carried forward in fender wells, with folding trunk rack in rear.

BROUGHAM BY BRUNN

HERE, in every line and item of equipment, are expressed distinction, refinement and luxurious comfort. The length and lowness of this car are emphasized by a moulding which extends around the body and along the hood to the radiator. The two folding auxiliary seats face forward.

CABRIOLET BY BRUNN

THERE is a sweep in the rear roof line that marks this car as unusually smart. Rear quarters are collapsible so that here are truly an open and a closed car in one. Driver's seat is black leather. One auxiliary seat faces sideways and another to the rear. Two spare tires are carried forward in fender wells, with folding trunk rack in rear.

LIMOUSINE BY DIETRICH

ARTISTICALLY designed, beautifully finished, and unusually roomy, this chauffeur-driven car is extremely popular for formal use. Glass partition behind driver may be lowered out of sight. The front compartment is upholstered in leather unless otherwise specified.
