

but of a different kind, is shown in the comedy, which will be "Folly Insured," with Snub Pollard. Pathe Review is included in the program.

The Savannah Shuffle figures in the attraction for Friday and Saturday, September 10 and 11, in "Skinner's Dress Suit" with Reginald Denny and Laura LaPlante. It's an uproarious business farce showing what a dress suit can do for a small salaried clerk with the right kind of a wife who knows how to Charleston. "Shivering Spooks" the latest two reel Our Gang comedy, and the Pathe News will also be shown.

This Saturday, September 4, the two attractions to be shown are "Battling Butler," with Buster Keaton and Sally O'Neil, a Wilmette girl, and "America's Polar Triumph," with Lieutenant Commander Byrd, U. S. N.

HOYBURN THEATRE

"Battling Butler," Buster Keaton's latest picture, holds the screen at the Hoyburn this week-end, a fistic comedy which has been praised by ring professionals as the most realistic ever screened. Several well known younger boxers appear in the actual fight scenes. Wednesday and Thursday of next week the showing will be Ford Sterling in "The Show-off," Lois Wilson co-starring. Friday and Saturday will bring "Pals First" featuring Lloyd Hughes and Dolores Del Rio.

CAMPUS THEATRE

"Partners Again," a Potash and Perlmutter screen yarn with George Sidney and Alexander Carr in the leads, is the current showing at the Campus theater. A bathing beauty contest with $1,000 in prizes in another feature of the current bill. Tomorrow will bring Kenneth Harlan and Patsy Ruth Miller in "The King of the Turf." The Labor Day feature will be Ken Maynard and Esther Ralston in "$50,000 Reward" with complete pictures of the Mandel-Kansas fight. Tuesday and Wednesday will bring a bill of old time movies made from 15 to 20 years ago—pictures starring Wallace Reid, Dorothy Gish, Charlie Chaplin, Tom Mix, Lillian Gish, Mabel Norman, Mary Pickford and others. The films of the inauguration of President McKinley will also be shown.

NORSHORE THEATRE

Robert Kane, producer of "The Reckless Lady," "Bluebeard's Seven Wives" and "The Dancer of Paris," stands sponsor for a comedy-melodrama, "The Wilderness Woman," his latest First National production, which will be presented at the Norshore theatre next Sunday for a three-day run.

Mr. Kane has brought a well known trio—Aileen Pringle, Lowell Sherman and Chester Conklin—together to play the principal roles of the picture.

"The Wilderness Woman" offers Miss Pringle her first character comedy role, something entirely different from anything she has attempted heretofore. In the supporting cast are Henry Vigart and Robert Cain, while not the least important member of the cast is a bear cub, Miss Pringle's constant companion through much of the picture's amusing action.

Marshall Neilan's newest picture, "Diplomacy," and absorbing mystery drama in which Blanche Sweet is starred, is now playing.

NEW EVANSTON THEATRE

For the first time in the history of the New Evanston theater Tom Mix and his marvelous horse, Tony, will be on the silver sheet at the local playhouse next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The feature will be "No Man's Gold," rated the greatest of the Mix productions. This will be a first run showing. The current offering at the New Evanston is "The Road to Mandalay," featuring Lon Chaney, who plays the part of a sinister Oriental dive keeper in a mystery drama of the Orient. Louis Moran is the heroine and the cast also includes Owen Moore, Henry B. Walthall and others of note.

Mrs. Morris Allen, 872 Pine street, has returned from Los Angeles, Cal., where she was called by the sudden death of her mother.

W. H. Andrews and son, Edwin, 255 Myrtle street, left last week to spend a few days at Mussel Shoals.
