

Business Sense in Banking

OUR CUSTOMERS appreciate the fact that our Officers look at their problems from a business man's point of view.

We appreciate it when our customers look at business problems from a sound banking point of view.

Business sense in banking and banking sense in business is the winning combination for results.

LEE Says:

A NICE young lady
OF our acquaintance
WAS in our store
YESTERDAY afternoon
AND just as she was
LEAVING she told us
SHE had to hurry home
AND get the breakfast
DISHES washed in time
FOR supper, and we can
SYMPATHIZE with her
BECAUSE that's just how
OUR time goes here at
THE store — we come down
EVERY morning all pepped
UP and ready to do
SOMETHING worth while
AND before we know it
IT'S closing time and
WE'RE no farther along
THAN we were in the MORNING—but we meet
LOTS of friends every
DAY and manage to jingle
THE cash register a
LITTLE once in a while
AND we enjoy our work,
SO we should worry,
AS Shakespeare says.
