WINNETKA BUILDING NEWS

Vol. 1

Winnetka, Ill.

No. 27

If you want to be the center of attraction, get a small pup and walk around town with him.

The Wm. Salmen Co. have under construction a very attractive English stucco home at 130 17th street, Wilmette. They are also building a 1 1-2 story bungalow for Mr. Rodenkirk at 16th and Hill streets, Wilmette. And a 6-room bungalow for Mr. C. R. MacArthur at Broadview and Green Bay road, Ravinia.

Yesterday we saw a horse shy at an automobile. Where's that horse been for the past ten years?

Having about completed his home at Elm and Walnut streets, Winnetka, Mr. R. C. Crosley is now building for Mr. Frank Cutten at Chestnut and 10th streets, Wilmette. Mr. Crosley is a firm believer in Gyplap and will use it throughout Mr. Cutten's home.

Another thing we saw yesterday, —a lady trip on a raised place in the sidewalk and then say something under her breath.

Last winter a man in this community told us he could see the curtains in his home waving in the breezes that blew around the windows. They won't wave this winter. He has storm doors and windows. We made them for him.

"It's embarrassing when somebody comes up to you and says he's been away, when you haven't even missed him," says Lee Adams.

Mr. John Mills is using Cabot's Quilt, the famous home insulation in the construction of the Fisher home at Forest and Elder lane. Good judgement! he will realize it more and more as the years roll by.

"Gimme a round trip ticket."
"Where to?"
"Back here, you blamed idiot!"

Glencoe Man Purchases Apartments in Evanston

The new twenty-one apartment building at 1505-1509 Oak avenue, Evanston, has been sold by William Blanchard, Jr., to Dr. E. W. Maechtle of Glencoe for an undisclosed consideration, Mr. Blanchard taking in exchange as part payment the home of Dr. Maechtle at 1092 Bluff road.

Miss Marjorie DeGolyer of Hokanson and Jenks, Inc., represented all parties as broker.

Dr. Maechtle and family are leaving shortly to make their home in Florida and will leave the management of the new building in the hands of Hokanson and Jenks, Inc., who have recently added a management department in charge of Jerome E. Nelp.

Miss Christine Crane of New York City who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartholomay of 620 Spruce street, for a fortnight, left Thursday for her home in the East.

North Shore Women to Be Hostesses at Reception

The two hundred or more girls who are entering the University of Illinois this fall are being entertained Saturday, September 11, at the home of Mrs. Charles Dennis, 1225 Michigan avenue, Evanston, by the Chicago alumnae association of the university. The garden tea will be held from 3 to 6 and the hostesses will be Mrs. Charles Dennis of Evanston, and Mrs. C. Howard Bent, Mrs. E. E. Stults and Mrs. Fritz Wagner of Winnetka.

The following are the officers of the alliance: Mrs. Charles Dennis, president; Mrs. C. Howard Bent, vice-president; Miss Margaret Herdman of Chicago, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Fritz Wagner, recording secretary; and Mrs. A. F. Robinson, Oak Park, treasurer.

The tea is being given under the direction of a committee of which Mrs. Robert Knox is chairman.
