

Olde Hay Lofte Winter Inaugural Is Huge Success

The wise old owl who sat in a tree until recently when he took up abode in Ye Olde Hay Lofte, Frint George's dine and dance rendezvous in Evanston, blinked contentedly as Hayshakers struck up the inaugural note that introduced with proper eclat last Saturday, the current winter season in that favorably known establishment.

He blinked contentedly, evenly knowingly, for well he knew that the coaxing tones of the Hayshakers were beckoning the finest and the fairest of the north shore's citizenry to share with him the bounties and joys of his newly established domicile.

Ye Olde Hay Lofte, freshly appointed and offering the always unusual in culinary delicacies, fairly teemed with guests over the Labor Day holiday period, the net result being that Frint, the genial host, ran completely out of everything except the inexhaustible supply of hospitality and Hayshaking jazz.

"Our inaugural of the winter season was an astonishing success," Mr. George declared, "we were simply overwhelmed by our friends and their guests."

Miss Dorothy Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Warner, 154 Church road, left September 3, for an extended trip through the West. Going by way of the Canadian rockies, Miss Warner will travel by automobile from Calgary to Edmonton. She will stop at Lake Louise, Prince Rupert, Vancouver, and visit friends in Portland and San Francisco. She expects to spend the entire winter in California and other places along the coast.

N. U. President Appoints Howard Personnel Head

Professor Delton T. Howard, associate professor of psychology at Northwestern university over a period of years, has been appointed personnel director, according to an announcement by President Scott.

Dr. Howard succeeds Louis B. Hopkins, who recently accepted the presidency of Wabash college. During Mr. Hopkin's directorship of personnel at Northwestern, one of his ablest co-workers is said to have been Prof. Howard. Thus he was closely in touch with Director Hopkins' successful system and when the latter resigned, Professor Howard is known to have been a natural selection for the post. Director Howard at present is out of town on a vacation but is expected back shortly. He is especially interested in the proper grouping of students, in helping the laggards at college and in toning up the entire student body to full recognition of their responsibilities and opportunities, Dr. Scott indicated.

Director Howard is a doctor of philosophy and has high standing in American educational circles. In specializing in psychology he has written articles for educational journals and has conducted successfully various interesting psychological experiments. His main interest, however, has been in seeing the college student properly develop and for several years he has been of great assistance to the faculty at Northwestern university in this line.

How Cadillac Evanston Service Helps "Mrs. Winnetka" Cadillac Owner

If her Cadillac is entered on the regular Lubrication Service schedule for 600-mile oiling and greasing, she is able to dismiss from her mind all responsibility for the most important obligation any motor car owner assumes.

She does not need to wonder when the car needs lubrication. A little slip, on the face of the speedometer, tells her at what mileage oiling and greasing is due. It also tells her the number of the lubrication operation—and she can check this with her service booklet for the price.

At the mileage indicated, she drives down to the Evanston Branch. "Oil and grease please," is all she needs to say to the tester. From the records he has, he knows what is necessary.
