

WINNETKA TALK

Saturday, September 18, 1926

Vacation a Memory

Talk Photo by Lehle

Winnetka school children left off with vacation activities Monday of this week and found their assigned places in one or the other of these very attractive buildings, Winnetka's public school structures. At the upper left is the Skokie school and adjoining it at the right, the Hubbard Woods school. Lower left is the Greeley school and lower right the Horace Mann building.