Purple Wildcats Start Practice Sans Mascot

One hundred players, eight coaches, and no mascot were included in the first turnout of the football practice season at Northwestern university Wednesday.

Two practice sessions daily until classes start on September 23, have been decreed for the Purple. After that one two-hour session, to conform to the recent conference agreement, will be the program.

Fourteen returning lettermen, who are eligible for intercollegiate competition, were among the candidates, as were a couple who have not yet leaped the scholastic barrier. Ninety rookies also were issued suits.

The Wildcat mascot was missing, though. The mascot presented to the Purple last year by Dr. R. N. Dunnington of Benton Harbor, an alumnus, died during the summer. Dr. Dunnington went out to capture another one alive, but at press time, hadn't quite got the range.

Visitor Here Leaves to Take Post in Honolulu

Miss Katherine S. VanEtten, of New York, who has been visiting at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. James Austin Richards, 739 Lincoln avenue, left Thursday evening for Honolulu to take up her work in connection with the Young Women's Christian association there. Mrs. Fitch has spent the summer at her cottage at Bass lake, Mich., and has returned to her home in Austin. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left Tuesday on a trip to the western coast, visiting Mr. Johnson's mother in Tacoma. They will then proceed to Seattle and Vancouver, and spend some time at the Jasper National park, near Prince Rupert, Canada. They will return in three weeks, through the Canadian Rockies.
