Character Plus Earning Capacity

—Is all the collateral you need when you borrow money here

ALL any bank wants to know when it lends money, is that the amount will be repaid.

That's all the Evanston Security Finance Corporation wants to know, and as soon as it is convinced that the character and the earning capacity of the person requesting the loan is straight-forward and fair, it usually takes about 24 hours to complete the transaction.

You can borrow up to $1,000.00 and pay it back in weekly, semi-monthly or monthly payments. For example—Suppose you need $100.00. It costs you less than $8.00 to make it if you repay promptly, and you pay back the $100.00 in fifty equal weekly payments of $2.00 each. Monthly or semi-monthly payments may be arranged.

Ford Makes Denial of Rumors of New Car

There is no truth to the rumors that Ford is about to put a new car on the market, according to a telegram from Edsel Ford to Gaston Plantiff, eastern district manager of the Ford Motor company.

"A telegram has just been received from Edsel Ford, president of the Ford Motor company, in which absolute denial is made that a new Ford model is soon to be placed on the market," said Mr. Plantiff, "We know that it is very generally rumored that the Ford Motor company is about to introduce a "Light Six" or a "Light Eight." There positively are no grounds for these rumors. You can say positively there is no new Ford model coming along, and there is no new Ford car going to be introduced."

Mrs. W. G. Weil and daughter, Nellie Louise, 608 Willow road, have been spending several weeks in Burlington, Iowa, and have just returned.

George Beyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Beyers, 707 Hill road, will attend school at St. Edward's hall, Notre Dame university, South Bend, Ind., this next year.

HOLD SERVICES FOR PROMINENT ARCHITECT

George W. Maher, Planner of Kenilworth, Buried at Rosehill Cemetery Tuesday

Funeral services for George W. Maher, for 32 years a resident of Kenilworth, were held from the chapel at Rosehill cemetery Tuesday of this week. Burial was at Rosehill. Mr. Maher died at his summer home in Ganges, Mich., last Sunday.

Mr. Maher was a prominent architect and specialized in community planning and the design of beautiful buildings. He laid out the Village of Kenilworth, besides designing and building the schools and churches and donating a park, and also drew up the Village plan for Glencoe. He designed and built many beautiful homes and buildings along the north shore, among them the home for George B. Dryden and James A. Patten, at Evanston, and the Patten gymnasium of Northwestern university.

He was consulting engineer to the Kenilworth Plan commission and was interested in the preservation of the Fine Arts building, in Chicago, being a member of the committee working for that purpose.

Mr. Maher was born in Mill Creek, W. Va., and was 61 years old at the time of his death. He studied architecture in Chicago and later in Europe. In 1906 he was a member of the Kenilworth board of Architects and was president of that organization in 1918. His last work was at Gary, Ind., where he helped to draft the planning code. His health had been failing since 1920 and he suffered a nervous breakdown in 1922 as the result of overwork.

Members of the immediate family who survive are the widow, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Maher, of 424 Warwick road, a son, Philip B. Maher, of the same address, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Nooner, of Michigan. Dr. College, formerly pastor of the Kenilworth Union church, officiated at the funeral services.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Mess and their daughter, Mary Jane, 982 Pine street, have returned home after a summer spent at their cottage on Lake Hamlin at Ludington, Mich., and three weeks at Benton Harbor, where they visited Mrs. Mess's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Hurd, 518 Sunset road, have as their guest, Mrs. Hurd's mother, Mrs. Anna F. Jensen, who has been abroad since May, touring throughout Europe. Mrs. Hurd's sister, Mrs. E. M. Fitzgerald of Detroit, Mich., is also being entertained by Mrs. Hurd.
