Jerome E. Nelp Joins Hokanson and Jenks, Inc.

Jerome E. Nelp, formerly in charge of the building management department of Liepold and Hicks, has joined the firm of Hokanson and Jenks, Inc. at Evanston, and will have charge of their new department of building management.

Hokanson and Jenks, Inc. now have fully organized departments for all branches of insurance and building management in addition to a very active sales department. "We are especially pleased in having Mr. Nelp come with us," said Mr. Jenks of the firm, in speaking of the new manager, "as we have had a number of requests from our clients who desire us to handle their properties. We have hesitated to take over these buildings until we were able to handle them to our entire satisfaction and we feel that this question has been very satisfactorily solved by Mr. Nelp."

Lewis B. Springer Manages Floridale Interests in State

Ringling and White, Inc., announce the opening of the new Floridale office in Chicago, located in The New Metropolitan building, at 134 North LaSalle street. This office will be under the management of Lewis B. Springer, who will be in charge of Floridale interests in the State of Illinois.

Mr. Springer is a well known pioneer resident of Wilmette, and he is a director in the Floridale townsite corporation, who are developing the city of Floridale in the center of the 50,000 acre farm development.

After a very thorough investigation of this development and the methods used in building it by Ringling and White, Inc., and the Porter Interests, of Florida, he decided to cast his lot with this organization and became an investor in the project and accepted the management of the State of Illinois.

Announce $80,000 Sales of Lots in Kenilworth

McGuire and Orr's Wilmette office, 348 Linden avenue, report the sale of four Kenilworth lots, aggregating approximately $80,000. While no definite plans have been made by the purchasers for immediate improvement of the properties, it is said that in all probability they will build later. Lot 62 on Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth Beach, was sold to W. H. McGrahan of Chicago; Lot 5, block 13 on Raleigh road, to Fred Stebbins; Lot 30, block 35, at the southeast corner of Oxford and Sheridan roads, to Roger E. Williams; Lot 8, block 21, Roslyn road, to Chicago Title and Trust company.

CHAIRS, beds, sofas, lamps, etc., do not make a home unless someone skillfully guides their selection and arrangement in accordance with good taste. The Library Plaza has always been praised for the "homey" comfort of its apartments.
