Winnetka Boys Motor to College Work in East

Robert Atwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Atwood of 839 Elm street, and Morgan Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustaf Nelson, 849 Elm street, left Wednesday for Worcester, Mass., where they will enter Clark university, Atwood as a sophomore and Nelson as a junior, the latter having spent two years at Wheaton college. The young men are motoring and are accompanied by Stanley Nelson, brother of Morgan, and Frank Conley, of Wheaton. From the university Stanley Nelson and Conley will proceed to New York, Washington and various other points of interest in the East, where they will spend two weeks before returning home.

School Assembly Told of Customs of Pueblo Tribe

Mrs. Edward H. Trowbridge, of 1111 Oak street, Winnetka, addressed the Assembly at Skokie school, Friday morning at 11:30 o'clock, on the Pueblo Indians, displaying some of the products of this tribe. Mrs. Trowbridge spends some time every summer among these Indians, of whose customs and life she makes intensive study. She has written extensively on this subject and has also penned numerous short stories and poems. She is president of the English club of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Scott and their daughters, Emily and Isabel, 175 Sheridan road, Hubbard Woods, have returned from a summer spent at the Chicago club, Charlevoix, Mich.

Edward Lang, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lang, 838 Locust street, has entered the University of Wisconsin in the freshman class. His brother, Harold, will be a sophomore at the University of Wisconsin this year.

Local Delegates
Return Home From Legion Convention

Edward G. Howell and the Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin were the delegates from Winnetka Post, No. 10 to the state convention of the American Legion, held at Springfield, September 13 and 14.

Ferre Watkins, of the North Shore post, was the unanimous choice of the convention for commander for the ensuing year.

On Monday afternoon the entire convention made a pilgrimage to the tomb of Abraham Lincoln, where appropriate ceremonies were held. The commanders of the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Confederate Veterans jointly placed a wreath on the tomb of Lincoln. The convention voted as in favor of holding the legislative sessions of the 1927 national convention within the United States. If the national convention, which meets next month at Philadelphia, decides similarly, it will mean that the legislative sessions for 1927 will be held just before or just after the pilgrimage to the battle fields and American cemeteries in France. But in all probability, this pilgrimage will be carried out as originally planned, whether the legislative sessions of the national convention are held in America or in France that year.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Foster, 596 Maple avenue, and their daughter, Miss Rachel, returned Wednesday, September 15, from an extensive European tour. Miss Foster left Winnetka last February, taking the Mediterranean cruise with Mr. and Mrs. William Boyden of Winnetka, and was joined by her parents who left in May.
