Koenig-McKenney Nuptials Held at St. Xavier Church

The marriage of Angela Doris Koenig to Seward F. McKenney of 752 Foxdale avenue, Winnetka, took place Saturday at the St. Francis Xavier church in Wilmette. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock in the morning by the Rev. Walter Cornell, uncle of the bride, the Rev. Francis Freiberger and the Rev. Bernard Brady assisting.

The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Koenig, 825 Gregory avenue, immediately afterwards.

White satin was the material of which the bride's gown was made, combined with a Chantilly lace train and embroidered in pearls. A head dress of rose point lace fastened the tulle veil to her coiffure, and white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley formed her bouquet.

Miss Edna Seng, maid of honor, was dressed in a gown of Nile green chiffon, and the bridesmaids, Miss Rose McKenney sister of the groom, and Miss Helen Finn and Miss Dorothea Garvy, cousins of the bride, were dressed in chiffon of varying shades of peach. They all wore hats of velvet of the new ice-cream shade, with flowers matching their dresses, and carried roses and larkspur.

Dr. M. Shumann of Cincinnati served as best man, and John Hartnett, James Byron, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Torrey Foy ushered.

The young couple are spending their honeymoon in the north woods, and upon their return, will make their home in Rogers Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnett Faroll, 741 Prospect avenue, Winnetka, returned the last of August from an eight weeks' trip to Europe. They spent some time in northeastern Europe, including Finland in their tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Max E. Immerwahr, 458 Willow road, have sold their home and have moved to 431 Aldine avenue, Chicago. George Immerwahr, their son, has left to attend Princeton university.
