

FURS

Dear Madam:

It will be a pleasure for us to serve you again this season.

If you intend to have a new fur garment this season, you will do well to come to see our stock, designs and linings. We have the best furs obtainable, and if we don't have what you want we will get it for you. Estimates are gladly given, so that you may compare the pelts, designs and workmanship.

Our skilled help and modern equipment plus our experience in the making of fur garments is your at no additional cost.

Our honest and conscientious service together with our pride in fitting the customer properly in most becoming lines has made us friends of customers who have been discouraged after having their work done elsewhere.

We take your old coat in trade. A suitable deposit will hold any garment until wanted. All new garments are guaranteed and will be stored free of charge for one year.

Aids U. S. Attorney

Hope Thompson, 1219 Ashland avenue, Wilmette, well known Chicago attorney and candidate for state's attorney a few years ago, has been appointed chief assistant to United States District Attorney Edwin A. Olson in Chicago. He succeeds John Elliott Byrne, who resigned. Mr. Thompson has been a member of the Illinois bar for more than twenty years.

Marries Wilmette Man at Ceremony in Home

The marriage of Miss Ida Luensman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luensman, 804 Elm street, to Lester Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Barker, 1521 Forest avenue, Wilmette, took place Monday, September 20, at 8 o'clock, in the bride's home. Judge C. T. Northrop performed the ceremony.

Miss Luensman was gowned in white crepe de chine, with flowing veil, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Mrs. N. Hawkinson of Wilmette, who attended the bride as matron of honor, wore a white lace gown, and carried red and white roses. Henry Luensman, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony in the bride's home. Following a two weeks' wedding trip motoring through Wisconsin, the young couple will make their home in Wilmette.

There once was a thrifty old Scot
Who thought that he saved quite a lot
He fixed his own car
But it didn't get far.
This shop was as far as it got.
