VISTA DEL LAGO GETS FAMOUS WRIGLEY CUP

North Shore Beach Club to Be Possessor of Emblem of Speed Boat World Championship

After fourteen years' wandering, the famous Wrigley Cup winner's replica, emblematic of the speed-boat championship of the world, and the Weckler trophy, awarded to the American champion, have been officially returned to Chicago's north shore, here to remain as the possession of Chicago sportmen.

The trophies, won by Commodore J. Stuart Blackton of the Atlantic Yacht club, on Chicago's Lake front in 1912, were returned by Commodore Blackton, with Commodore Sheldon Clark of the Chicago Yacht club as the recipient. With other trophies won by Blackton's "Baby Reliance II" the trophies are today the permanent possession of Vista del Lago, the new North Shore Beach club.

Miss Mae Marsh, the immortal heroine of "The Birth of a Nation," (who is in Chicago, incognito) and is one of the Southern California syndicate interested with Chicagoans in the building of Vista del Lago, presided at the ceremonies staged on the clubhouse site overlooking Lake Michigan on Sheridan road, south of Kenilworth.

Commodore Clark, who was chairman of the Regatta committee when the international speed boat races were held in Chicago, and when the late Jim Pugh's "Disturber II" was monarch of the waters until "sunk" by Blackton's "Baby Reliance II", accepted as Life Member No. 1 of Vista del Lago, the trophies formally delivered to the new beach club by its general chairman.

Plans for the new $1,500,000 project were shown at the brief ceremonies by John Reed Fugard, architect, of Evanston.

The guests further included E. C. Wetten, Paul N. Dale, Jared Gage and Louis Lee Arms.

Ground will be broken this fall, it is said. The club, which is for both men and women on an equal membership basis, is expected to be open next summer as an all-year, social and athletic north shore center, its sponsors assert.

TO RESUME CLASSES

Carolyn Smith has returned to Winnetka after a summer spent in New York City, where she took special courses in dancing under Ned Wayburn. Miss Smith will resume her classes at the Hubbard Woods school auditorium this fall. She is also conducting some interesting classes in limbering and stretching for adults.

Miss Catherine Smith of the Hubbard Woods school has as her guests, her mother, Mrs. Egbert Smith, Miss Hazel Lincoln of Cario, Ill., and her sister, Mrs. W. W. Beach, of New York City.
