

Society Will Hear Princess Pat Band

Famous Group Comes On for Benefit for Old People's Home

By JEAN TEN BROECK

The Princess Pat regiment has gone down in world history. The Princess Pat band, many times decorated, comes to Chicago Sunday. It will be hailed by many here for its famous self, for its music and for the purpose for which it comes, a benefit concert for the British Old People's Home.

The band, said by the conductor of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra to be "probably the finest organization of its kind on the American continent" will not give the program alone. Kathryn Baird (Miss Canada), chosen from among 150 as the best and the most beautiful singer in Canada, and Gladys Graham, champion woman Scotch dancer and winner of 250 contests, will give special features of song and of dance.

The concert, which begins at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, is given under the auspices of the British Empire association, of which there are many members on the north shore. And wives of members of this organization, known as daughter of the British Empire, have two local chapters, the Cambridge in Wilmette, and the Windsor in Glencoe.
