

Vista del Lago Gets Trophies

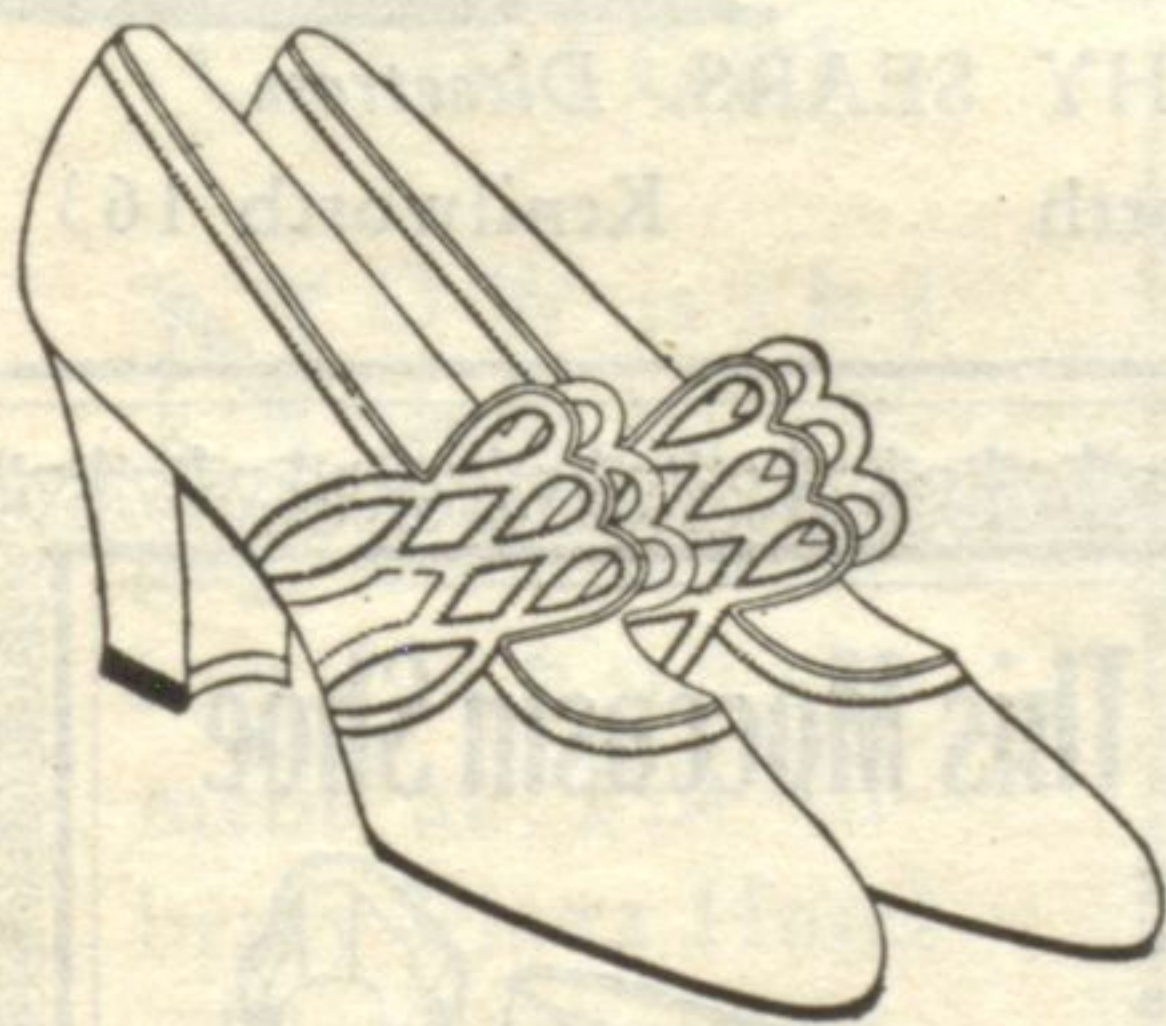

Miss Mae Marsh, movie star and one of those interested in the new Vista del Lago beach club, is shown presenting the club with the replica of the Wrigley Cup winner, the speed boat champion of the world. After fourteen years this coveted award has now been officially returned to the north shore to remain in the possession of Chicago sportsmen. The trophies were won by Commander J. Stuart Blackton of the Atlantic Yacht club on Chicago's lake front in 1912. They were presented to the club on the site of its new home in "No Man's Land" between Kenilworth and Wilmette, this week.

Dr. and Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler, 1119 Sheridan road, and their daughters, Marcella and Barbara, have returned to Winnetka after a summer spent in Greensboro, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. M. Miller, 936 Elm street, have gone to Detroit, Rochester, Washington and Philadelphia. They will be away about three weeks.
