

Lee Says:

THERE'S a family in THIS community that OPERATES on the budget PLAN, just like the UNITED States of AMERICA!

THE man and his wife APPROPRIATE so much EACH year for house EXPENSES, so much for CHARITY, so much for CLOTHES, a certain AMOUNT for amusement AND barber bills, and SO on down the line, AND we think it's a FINE idea only our INCOME, we're afraid, COULDN'T very well be DIVIDED up that way— BUT if any of the rest OF you plan to try the SYSTEM we'd like to SUGGEST that you make ROOM in your budget SOMEWHERE for ICE-CREAM—you're SURE to need it BEFORE the year is up, AND this is the place TO buy it.

Nurseryman Opens New Place at Highland Park

For eighteen years a resident of Winnetka, and for almost as many years a nurseryman, John Ostrowsky, formerly of Hubbard Woods and Winnetka, has moved to Highland Park, and has a new establishment open for business. Mr. Ostrowsky's new nursery is located on Park avenue, Highland Park, one mile west of Green Bay road. Evergreen trees, fruit trees of all kinds, shrubbery and perennials are included in his specialties.

Mrs. Mary Ranney of Manhattan, Kan., an aunt of Mrs. Charles Sommer of 425 Provident avenue, and her house guest, was the guest of honor at a tea on Tuesday afternoon given by Mrs. Sommer at her home. Mrs. Ranney has just returned from the Catskills in New York, where she pass-

Evanston Man Opens New Meat Market in Winnetka

Today marks the formal opening of still another new business house in Winnetka, the modern up-to-date meat market at 576½ Lincoln avenue, to be known as the Ideal Market.

W. E. Fredericks is the proprietor. Mr. Fredericks also conducts the Ideal Market at 1613 Sherman avenue, Evanston, and is convinced that Winnetka offers an equally promising field for his second shop.

He announces that he will sell the very best meats, poultry, fish and oysters, for the handling of which he has equipped his store in the most modern method. This includes a large Frigidaire equipped counter. His shop throughout is modern in sanitation and convenience, and he cordially invites residents to call and inspect it.
