Plans Underway to Make Smith College Ball a Gala Affair

Plans are materializing in the arrangements for the Smith College ball which is being given under the auspices of the Evanston Smith College club, embracing villages from Highland Park to Chicago. The ball will be held at the Evanston Country club, Wednesday evening, October 13, and is the scholarship ball which has for its purpose, raising money to send a girl from Evanston High school to Smith college.

Mrs. E. S. Clark, (Elizabeth Campbell) is general chairman for the ball, and has an efficient committee co-operating with her to make this affair one of the outstanding events of the year. Jerry Conley's orchestra has been engaged to provide the music, and the mystery of the entertainment is yet unsolved. But Miss Virginia Forbes of Evanston, who is in charge of providing the entertainment and her committee, are planning some striking forms of amusement devised to delight everyone.

The list of sponsors for the ball include Mrs. Mary Hastings Bradley of Chicago, Mrs. J. E. Blunt, Jr., of Evanston, Mrs. Horace Armstrong of Winnetka, Mrs. Warner Baird of Evanston, Mrs. E. S. Bersback of Evanston, Mrs. J. W. Knight of Evanston, Mrs. F. Parker Davis of Evanston, Mrs. Rawleigh Warner of Evanston, Mrs. Donald Scott of Evanston, Mrs. Earl Reed of Evanston and Mrs. C. H. Schewpe of Lake Forest.

Give Subjects of Lecture Series by Dr. Carl S. Patton

"The Old Gospel in the New Times" is the subject of a series of six lectures to be given in Winnetka this fall.

Dr. Carl S. Patton, formerly of Los Angeles, and now of the faculty of Chicago Theological seminary, is to present this series on six consecutive Wednesday evenings beginning October 13. A joint committee of Christ church and the Winnetka Congregational church has arranged the series and a cordial invitation is extended to all Winnetkans and their friends.

Dr. Patton will deal with his subject, "The Old Gospel in the New Times" as follows:

October 13—"The Present Day Emphasis in Religious Belief."

October 20—"Is the Old Testament Outgrown?"

October 27—"The Heart of the New Testament."

November 3—"What Does the Christian Owe the World?"

November 10—"What is a Church for?"

November 17—"Christianity and the Nations."

Preceding his work in Los Angeles, Dr. Patton was well known through his pastorate both at Ann Arbor, Mich., and in Washington Gladden's university church in Columbus, Ohio.

PLAN FOOD SALE

Winnetka chapter 942, Order Eastern Star, will hold a food sale at Eckhart's Hardware store Saturday, October 9, at 9:30 o'clock. The announcement further states, "Those who have purchased at these sales know what good cooks there are in the Eastern Star and how reasonably they sell their wares. Be sure to do your Saturday marketing at the O. E. S. sale at Eckhart's."
