Churches Jointly Sponsor Lectures

Those who are on the joint committee, representing both churches, emphasize that the meetings are open to the entire community with a genuine welcome to everyone interested. The lectures will be given at 8:15 o'clock each evening.

In line with a program of church co-operation which the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard and Rev. James Austin Richards have been developing for some time, it is hoped that these joint meetings will prove to be a worth while, stimulating contribution to the religious thought of the community. Should they prove as successful as it is hoped that they will be, there is an opportunity that further outstanding religious and social workers and thinkers will be brought to Winnetka in the future with a broader, more comprehensive benefit than would be possible were one church organization working individually.

The committee in charge of the lectures includes Mrs. C. D. Dallas, Mrs. Arthur J. Boynton, Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard, Rev. James A. Richards, Messrs. Ernest Ballard, J. Milton Coufiter, Clarence B. Randall, Charles T. Moon, chairman.

At the Ouilmette Country club Thursday evening, with the decorations of chrysanthemums and other autumn flowers, at a dinner for fifty friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Dubbs of 1004 Michigan avenue, Wilmette, made known the engagement of their daughter, Jean, to William Henry McAdams, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. McAdams of Boston. No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Dubbs is a graduate of Wellesley college.
