Two Balls Offer an Appeal to Society as Large Benefits

By JEAN TENBROECK

North Shore society has such divergent interests. Ever increasingly and more unselfishly it seeks to enhance its pleasures by embodying its large functions with a purpose beneficial. And these large benefits, instigated, arranged, and even carried out in perhaps only one of our towns, hardly ever can be entirely of local appeal, for the activities of each of these villages interweave, because of friendships, and because of the general widespread interest expressed for many of the organizations for which the benefits are given. Two balls to be given within the next few weeks will have a large north shore representation.

One of these is just announced to us this week. It is the Charity ball to be given Wednesday, November 3, with the Glencoe Center, Infant Welfare Society of Chicago, the hostess, if we may so express it, at the Evanston Country club. The carrying on of the work of the center, the support of the Mary Crane Infant Welfare station, will be aided by the success of this affair. Mrs. E. F. Wieboldt of Glencoe is general chairman for the ball, other information about which will be disclosed as the weeks pass by.

A Scholarship ball is an innovation in the "ball" world, at least as far as we know. Such an event already has been announced for Wednesday, October 13, the Evanston Country club also the locale. The Evanston Smith College club is sponsoring the affair to send a girl from the Evanston High school to Smith college.

Mrs. E. S. Clark, (Elizabeth Campbell) is general chairman, and the various committees are composed as follows: refreshment committee—Miss Margaret Scott, chairman, Miss Elinor Woodward of Hubbard Woods, Miss Mary Huston, Miss Lydia Atwater, Miss Eleanor Clark, Miss Mary Barry, of Evanston; advertising committee—Miss Neola Northam, chairman, and Mrs. Ralph H. Maxon, Miss Marcella Mettler of Winnetka, designer, Miss Olive Dougherty, Miss Adeline Boyden; entertainment committee—Miss Virginia Forbes; ticket committee—Miss Alice Judson, chairman, Miss Mary Jane Judson, Mrs. David Kimball, Mrs. Robert Morrisson, Miss Caroline Schofield, Miss Gwendolen Washington of Glencoe, Miss Elizabeth Rice of Wilmette, Miss Margaret DeLay and Miss Marcella Mettler, of Winnetka.

Tickets may be obtained from Miss Margaret DeLay of Winnetka, Miss Gwendolen Washington of Glencoe and Miss Caroline Schofield of Highland Park.

Miss Jerry Conley's orchestra will play for the ball.

The annual bridge party given by the Windsor chapter, Daughters of British Empire, takes place this year, on Tuesday, October 19, at the Masonic temple in Glencoe. Those wishing tables, may reserve them from Mrs. Samuel Goss, Mrs. W. A. Kittermaster, Mrs. E. F. Hoskins, Mrs. T. G. King, Mrs. Charles D. Budd, all of Glencoe, or from any member of the chapter.

On the afternoon of December 21, the music committee of the Winnetka Woman's club is giving a tea dance at the clubhouse for the young people of the village. All the boys and girls at home from schools and colleges for the holidays are invited to attend.
