VILLAGE THEATER

One of the most delightful, well-balanced, easy-moving comedies the screen has offered for a long time is "The Waning Sex," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture starring Norma Shearer, which comes to the Village theatre next Monday and Tuesday, October 11 and 12, with Conrad Nagel as leading man.

Two girls and a man are the focal points of the plot. One of the girls wants him but doesn't love him, the other, the heroine, loves him but doesn't want him because she's not quite sure of her own mind.

The menace in this case is the girl who wants him but doesn't love him. She plots against him. He is invited to her home for dinner and while there an unfortunate mishap deprives him of his trousers, a compromising situation and just what the girl intended it to be.

All of the fair plotter's wiles are punctured, however, by the cleverness of her rival, and her frustration is just as complete and as satisfying as if she were the conventional male villain of the story.

In addition there will be an Educational comedy, "Dummy Love," and a Pathe news reel.

On Wednesday, October 13, the feature attraction will be "The Social Highwayman," with John Patrick and Dorothy Devore. This is a fast-moving comedy drama, built around the efforts of a young reporter to capture a notorious bandit, and is full of laughs and thrills. There will also be a cartoon comedy, "Props and the Spirits," and a Pathe review.

The Douglas Fairbanks screen feature "Don Q, Son of Zorro," coming to the Village theatre on Thursday,

Friday and Saturday, October 14, 15 and 16, is a supreme melodrama.

It is a modern story, laid in Spain, with most of the action taking place in Madrid.

Action-plus, with lightning sword-play, stunts, athletic achievement, humor and romantic merge ceaselessly.

The scenic background is the most elaborate and pretentious imaginable for the period. Fairbanks leaps as it were from castle to castle.

The plot is founded on "Don Q's Love Story" by K. and Hesketh Prichard, adapted for the screen by Jack Cunningham.

The story positively has nothing to do with the Cervantes hero, "Don Quixote" or his windmill troubles.

Mary Astor, young, beautiful and accomplished, has the leading feminine role.

To complete the bill there will be a new Inkwell cartoon called "Vaudeville," and a Pathe news reel.

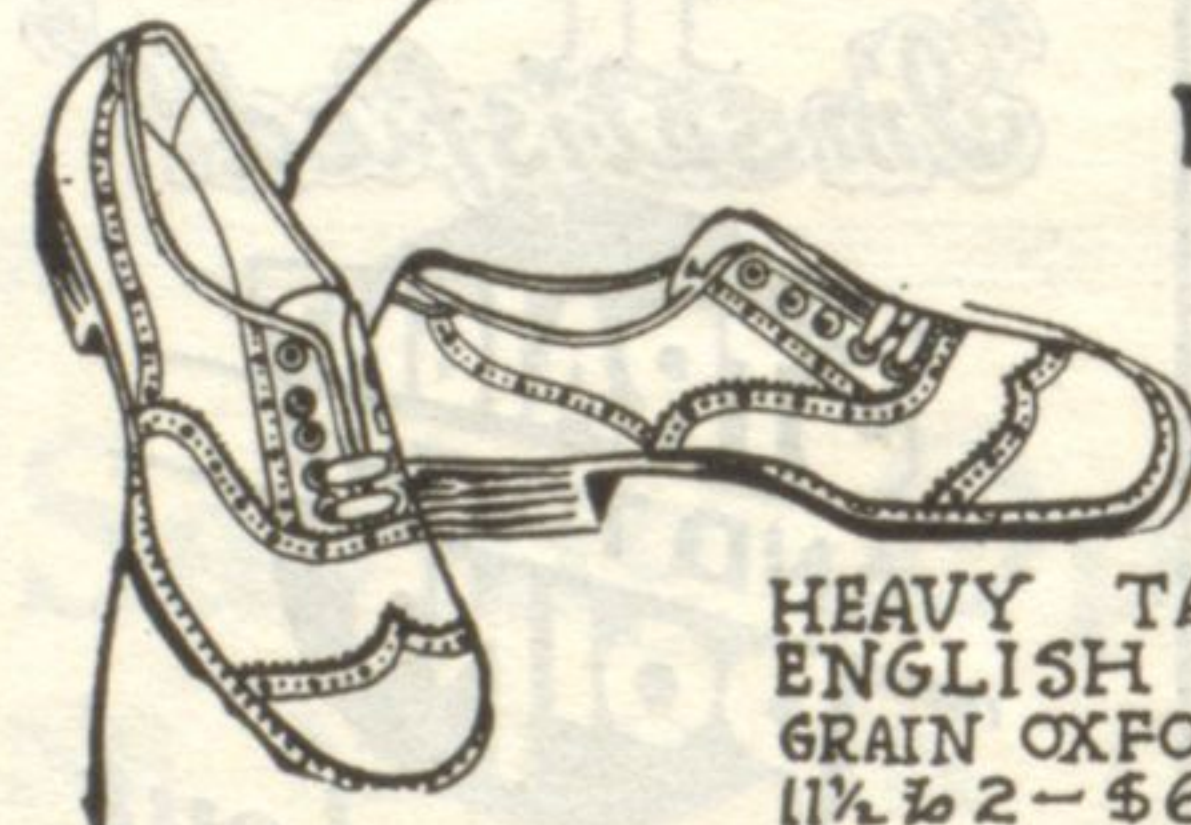

Among the big pictures to be shown at the Village theatre in the near future are "Variety" and "Men of Steel."

Mrs. Carl Abrahamson, 762 Walden road, is vice president of the Woman's Allied Drug club which opened its season with a reception to its new president, Mrs. T. H. Manchester, Thursday, at the Morrison hotel. Mrs. Frederick A. Dow spoke on "What Constitutes Club Work." Mrs. Florence Huden of Glencoe, soprano, sang.

Miss Marjorie Lips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lips, 844 Spruce street, has entered her last year of nurses training at the St. Frances hospital. Her course ends in June.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Borncamp, 992 Oak street, have sold their home and moved to their new house on Rogers Williams avenue in Ravinia, October 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Crawford, 848 Ash street, are expected to return next Monday from Hot Springs, Va.
