 The opening dance of the North Shore Country Day school was held Friday evening at the girls' gymnasium. The sophomore class gave the dance and acted as hosts and hostesses to the members of the faculty, students of the high school and their guests.

REV. ROHRBACH HERE TO BEGIN CHURCH WORK
Formerly Occupied High Position in Sweden; Was Born and Educated in England

Rev. A. E. Rohrbach, the new pastor of the First Scandinavian Evangelical church of Winnetka, arrived Wednesday of last week and is now permanently located at the home of Mrs. Elida B. Andrewson, 910 Elm street, only a short distance west of the church, which is located at 886 Elm street.

This Sunday evening, at 7:45 o'clock, Rev. Rohrbach will preach on the "Drawing Power of Christ." He will conduct services every Sunday at the foregoing hour and announces that he will, in all probability preach on Sunday mornings, also, at 11 o'clock, in the Swedish language and in the English language at the evening service.

Rev. Rohrbach's family will remain in Stockholm, for the time being. Rev. and Mrs. Rohrbach have a family of four children, three daughters and one son. Two of the daughters have graduated from high school and one is now studying medicine and the other music.

Resided in Stockholm

In Stockholm, where the Rohrbachs have resided for a number of years, Rev. Rohrbach has been pastor of a large inter-denominational church, and during the war he was general traveling secretary for the Y. M. C. A., during which he addressed more than 70,000 soldiers in one year.

He has traveled extensively in Russia, Burma and India, and in fact, throughout most of the countries in Europe. He has had the privilege of moving among the Swedish aristocracy, and counts Prince Bernadotte, a brother of the present king of Sweden, as his personal friend. Rev Rohrbach was a guest of Prince Bernadotte at his private estate and preached in his private chapel, the same week he left for this country. He comes with the highest recommendations from his distinguished friend in Sweden, to the fellowship and confidence of the Christian public in America.

Rev. Rohrbach's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Julius Rohrbach, reside at 1123 Linden avenue, Wilmette. Dr. Rohrbach, for forty years was a leading pastor in Berlin, Germany, prior to his coming to this country several years ago.

Born in England

Rev. Rohrbach, was born in England. His mother is an English woman. His high school education he obtained in both England and Germany, completing his college course in England and Scotland. He took his holy orders at Upsala, Sweden, in which country he has resided for the past twenty-one years.

Last winter, during a leave of absence from his church in Stockholm, Rev. Rohrbach came to Wilmette to visit his aged parents, it being his first visit to this country for fifteen years. He spoke frequently at the Winnetka Scandinavian Evangelical church and also received many invitations to address Rotary and various kindred societies both on the north shore and in Chicago, and soon after his departure for home this spring, was extended a call to the pastorate of the Winnetka church.

Despite his pleasant surroundings in the country of his adoption and in which he had resided for so long, he was so impressed with the Winnetka community and the great possibilities in the field of Christ's labors thus offered him, that he replied to the call with his acceptance. The church to which he comes is a small congregation, but Rev. Rohrbach, with his broad vision and wide experience in travel and study, said he felt that opportunity had been opened to him to do a great work in this splendid, responsive community.

Invites Cooperation

He invites all to co-operate with him. He says he does not preach any "isms," but the gospel of Jesus Christ, and he fairly radiates his highest ideal—"If I can give a lifting hand, I have not lived in vain."

On last Sunday evening he preached on "The Vital Determination," according to First Corinthians, 2-2, when St. Paul declared, "he would know nothing save Jesus Christ and Him crucified."

Rev. Rohrbach declared, "it was that silent, directing, restraining, illuminating and purifying ministry which has made Paul immortal. I have come to preach Jesus Christ and Him crucified. Not a philosophy, but a Person and that Person a crucified Person, now raised from the dead; our living Head, soon to appear again."

Mrs. Charles Brand of Winnetka and Miss Lillian Brand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brand, 585 Lincoln avenue, left for Los Angeles, where they plan to spend the winter. They will be joined later in the month by the F. Schwalls and the William Brands, who are driving to the coast.

The Public Speaking classes which are conducted by Mrs. Frederick Dickinson of 1228 Scott avenue, will begin again this fall at the Community House.

Two classes for women have been announced, one for beginners, which will open Thursday, October 21, at 10 o'clock, and one for advanced pupils, to open on Tuesday, October 12, at the same hour.

The men's class will be started on Wednesday, October 20, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

These classes give the students voice work, extemporaneous speaking and interpretative reading work.
