The cost is very nominal, $35 and up—and can be arranged on convenient monthly payments.

See it in our store or ask to have a salesman call. No obligations.

YOUR KITCHEN CAN BE MADE A REAL JOY SPOT if you ventilate it with an ILGAIR Electric Ventilator—an exhaust fan which removes excessive heat, cooking odors, greasy atmosphere, and keeps the air pure, fresh and invigorating. The cost of operation is only a few cents a day, and this compact, quiet running ILGAIR Ventilator can be easily installed in your transom, window sash or wall opening.

If it is your desire to have a home that is truly modern and up-to-date, then an ILGAIR Ventilator in the kitchen becomes a necessity. It is a mark of refinement—a symbol of thoughtful consideration—assuring both comfort and cleanliness. Many residences along the North Shore are equipped with ILGAIR Ventilation, and their owners would not do without it.
