

Establish Unit of True Kindred on North Shore

Saturday evening, October 9, a meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Fred M. Coxen, 1538 Central avenue, Wilmette, to organize a True Kindred Conclave. A large number of residents of Wilmette, Winnetka and north Evanston were present. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Nellie F. Walker, grand commander of the True Kindred of Illinois. It was decided that the name shall be Lake Shore Conclave and the place of meeting, the new Wilmette Masonic temple, and the time of meeting to be the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month.

The True Kindred order has been in existence about twenty-five years and its membership is composed of Master Masons, their wives, widows, sisters and daughters. It is a charity organization, directing its activities principally in connection with children's welfare. Among other things, it has furnished and supplied the nursery at the Illinois Masonic hospital.

There will be a card and bunco party, sponsored by the conclave, at the home of Mrs. August Meyers, 1721 Highland avenue, Wilmette, Saturday evening, October 23.

Mrs. Edward Stewart of Wenatchee, Wash., Mrs. John Kirkpatrick of the same city, and Miss Lucia Holbrook of Shelby, Ohio, sisters of Mrs. John C. Black of 1174 Tower road, are visiting Mrs. Black for ten days. They arrived in Winnetka Friday, October 15.

Mrs. A. Vallean of Los Angeles, Cal., arrived in Winnetka, Wednesday, October 13, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Clifton B. Jacobs of 1302 Scott avenue. Mrs. Vallean expects to spend part of the winter with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yopp, whose marriage took place a month ago, have returned from their honeymoon trip, and are making their home in Ravinia. Mr. Yopp is the son of Mrs. Benjamin P. Kiefer of 1301 Asbury avenue, Winnetka.

Miss Margaret Hotz of 1072 Sheridan road, Glencoe has been spending three weeks on a ranch in Pucumcari, New Mexico. Miss Hotz, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Hotz expects to return in about ten days.

George M. Pearce, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Pearce of 1114 Merrill avenue, is in the Evanston hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis. He was operated on Friday, October 8, and is convalescing nicely.
