After many years in the coal business, we ought to know something about the merchandise we're selling. The information we have is yours for asking.

New Trier Trims Alumni; Meets La Grange Saturday

New Trier High school regulars walked over the alumni team in the football game last Saturday. The score was 14-0 in favor of the Gray and Green varsity, two touchdowns and a safety making that total of points. The game this Saturday will be with La Grange, at the latter's field. La Grange is not counted a serious opponent. In its game with Oak Park last Saturday La Grange tied its opponent with a score of 0-0. Coach Aschenbach will carry out his system of allowing the captain of the team to direct the plays, giving instructions only before the game and during the half.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Whitman of 540 Washington avenue, Glencoe, who have been spending some time in Europe, have returned to their home. Immediately upon returning from Europe, they left for Miami Beach, Fla., to see whether their home was demolished by the recent hurricane. Although several cottages on their property were destroyed, their home remained unharmed.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Cassard and family of 760 Prospect avenue have given up their home and moved to Chicago.

Marriage Service Performed in Soft Light of Candles

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Cushman, 739 Greenleaf avenue, Glencoe, made a lovely setting last Tuesday evening, October 12, for the wedding of their sister, Miss Beatrice Bartholf, to Walter E. Hiltabidle. In the living room there was a picturesque bower made of masses of green leaves, and at the sides two tall candelabras burned steadily. The rooms downstairs were softly lit by the kindly glow of white candles. Somewhere the mellow tones of a harp murmured out its beauty.

The bride wore her mother's wedding dress, which was of champagne satin, tight of bodice, very long and full of skirt, and having the tight sleeves with a huge puff from shoulder to elbow. There was a long train of satin on the dress, over which fell the fine tulle veil. The bride carried a stiff, old fashioned bouquet, which completed the charming air of quaintness.

Miss Gertrude MacRae, who was the bride's only attendant, wore a light green velvet and taffeta dress with tight bodice and long full skirt. She also carried a stiff, old fashioned bouquet. Dick, Roger and Donald Cushman preceded her, clad in white satin suits. They each carried tall white candles.

Morton Bassett of Evanston was Mr. Hiltabidle's best man. The Rev. D. H. Cornell read the service, after which a reception was given for wedding guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiltabidle are on a several weeks' motor trip through New England, after which they will make their home in Washington, D. C., where Mr. Hiltabidle's parents reside.

Francis King Cooke of 347 Forest avenue and his son, Francis King, Jr., have recently returned from a motor and fishing trip through Northern Wisconsin in the Land O' Lakes region. High water, cold weather, ice and snow compelled them to shorten their trip and return to Winnetka sooner than they expected.
